Minute Book No. 1.

24th JUNE, 1723, to 17th MARCH, 1731.

INTRODUCTION.

WITH the sanction of the Board of General Purposes, the Minutes of the two Grand Lodges having their headquarters in London, are now for the first time to be printed.

It is proposed to publish the text in full, without abbreviation or alteration of any kind, adding only such notes as may assist readers to a better understanding of allusions made, or enable them to identify the Lodges mentioned by reference to the various Editions of the Engraved Lists of Lodges or to the late Brother John Lane's Masonic Records, 1895, a work which is absolutely indispensable to any student of English Masonic History.

I may say that I have throughout used the word 'Moderns' to indicate the premier Grand Lodge of 1717, and 'Antients' for the Grand Lodge of 1751. The terms were applied and accepted by both parties as pointing to certain changes made by the former body, and a Union of the two organizations only became possible when the Moderns reverted to the methods which had been preserved with commendable tenacity by the Antients.

The absence of fraternal intercourse between the Moderns and sister Grand Lodges seems to be indicated by the refusal on 11th December, 1735, to admit members of an Irish Lodge, and possibly also by the earlier reference to Lord Southwell as Provincial Grand Master in Ireland at his attendance on 21st November, 1732. It would however be unsafe to accept the bare statement of the Secretary without some independent evidence to support it, and at present there is nothing forthcoming to shew that any such appointment was made. It will be remembered that some contemporary newspaper accounts of this meeting give the Earl of Sutherland, not Lord Southwell, as Provincial Grand Master, while in one, Lord Southwell is described as "late Grand Master of Ireland."

The Minutes of the two Grand Lodges in London are contained in the following Books :—

MODERNS.

1.	From	24. June	1723	to	17. March	1731.
2.	"	27. March	1731	"	26. April	1771.
3.	"	6. May	1771	"	18. April	1792.
4.	"	2. May	1792	"	31. December	1808.
5.	"	10. February	1809	"	23. June	1813.

ANTIENTS.

1a.	From	5. February	1752	to	7. December	1768.
2a.	„	31. January	1769	„	27. December	1773.
3a.	„	2. March	1774	„	28. December	1795.
4a.	„	20. January	1796	„	6. January	1812.
5a.	„	15. January	1812	„	23. December	1813.

Of the Moderns there are no Minutes in existence covering the six months immediately preceding the Union of the two Grand Lodges. Those of the Antients for the same period are contained in a Rough Minute Book which I have called 5a. None of the Books actually bear any Numbers, but those I have given will facilitate reference. The early Books of the Antients are lettered A, B, etc.

Book No. 1 opens with a List of "Regular Constituted Lodges" and the names of their Members so far as they were registered, the List having been commenced on the 25th November, 1723. As a matter of fact, certainly two Lodges in the List (meeting respectively at the Old Devil, Temple Bar, and the Blue Posts, Middle Lane, Holborn), were not constituted until March, 1724, while the Lodge at the Red Lion, Richmond, first appears in 1725, but for convenience of description I refer to this List as the "MS. List of 1723."

The List is immediately followed by a Second, in which the names are stated to have been delivered at the Quarterly Communication held on 27th November, 1725. This List I therefore designate the "MS. List of 1725," though it also reaches to a later period.

After nine blank pages, the actual Minutes commence under date 24th June, 1723, continuing to 17th March, 1731. Then on the following page a third List of Lodges is introduced with a note recording the fact that the subsequent Minutes were entered in a new Book presented by the Duke of Norfolk.

This third List I call the "MS. List of 1730," although as in the other cases it has been carried on to a later date, the last Lodge noted (Virgin's Inn, Derby), having been constituted in September, 1732.

Imperfect as these Lists are (and the third is undoubtedly the least satisfactory), it is much to be regretted that they were not continued, or, if they were, that no further Lists have survived; and in this Minute Book we have nothing more than a blank of 139 pages followed by a List of the Officers of Grand Lodge from 1717 to 1744.

It must be borne in mind that it was not until 1727 that any attempt was made to arrange the Lodges in any order of Seniority. At the Meeting of Grand Lodge on 27th December of that year the Officers of Grand Lodge were empowered to "inquire into the Precedency of the several Lodges," and a certain order was evolved which resulted in the enumeration given by John Pine in his Engraved List of the Lodges in existence at the end of 1728. This List was issued early in the following year, and is referred to by me as the "Engraved List of 1729." This was the first official numbering of Lodges, and although in many particulars the arrangement was very faulty, it formed the basis of all later numberings down to the amalgamation of the Lodges with those of the Antients after the Union of the two Grand bodies in 1813.

For the convenience of those who may desire to trace the history and wanderings of the Lodges noted in the three MS. Lists, I have prepared a table in which I have relied mainly upon the researches of Bro. John Lane (Masonic Records, 1717-1894; Handy Book to the Lists of Lodges, 1889), and Bro. Robert Freke Gould (The Four Old Lodges, 1879).

In particular I have accepted the identification by these two brethren of the Lodges given by Anderson in his Book of Constitutions, 1723, p. 74, thus leaving the following five Lodges still unidentified:—<sup>1</sup>

VI.	William Read . . . . .	Master
	John Glover . . . . .	} Wardens
	Robert Cordell . . . . .
VII.	Henry Branson . . . . .	Master
	Henry Lug . . . . .	} Wardens
	John Townshend . . . . .
X.	. . . . .	Master
	John Lubton . . . . .	} Wardens
	Richard Smith . . . . .
XIV.	Thomas Robbe, Esq. . . . .	Master
	Thomas Grave . . . . .	} Wardens
	Bray Lane . . . . .
XVII.	James Anderson, A.M. . . . .	Master
	Gwinn Vaughan, Esq. . . . .	} Wardens
	Walter Greenwood, Esq. . . . .

Probably Anderson's list does not include representatives of all Lodges then in existence. An examination of the "MS. List of 1723" seems to shew that there were others whose approval he did not obtain, but some of these may have been constituted after his Book was published early in 1723.

It may be merely a coincidence that throughout the MS. Lists there are instances of Lodges which met at houses bearing the same name, though in different parts of the town or country, being entered in succession, thus :—Three Tuns, Scarborough ; Three Tuns, Billingsgate ;—Crown, St. Giles's ; Crown, Ludgate Hill ;—Swan, Tottenham High Cross ; Swan and Rummer, Finch Lane ;—Three Tuns, Newgate Street ; Three Tuns, Smithfield ;—King's Arms, Russell Street ; King's Arms, Southwark ; New King's Arms, Leigh, Lancashire ; etc. These seem to warrant a suggestion that Alphabetical Lists were prepared, which are not now in existence.

In the following table I have inserted the dates of Constitution of the Lodges so far as they can be ascertained :—

	Leg, Fleet Street.	—		Does not appear in any List after 1725.
	Black Posts, Great Wild Street.	—		Does not appear in any List after 1725.
	Swan, East Street, Greenwich. 24 Dec., 1723.	25	King's Head, Greenwich.	Constituted in 1723, but does not appear in MS. Lists before 1725. Afterwards United Traders' Lodge. Erased in 1800.
	Queen's Head, Holles Street. 1724.	—		Does not appear in any List after 1725. See Q.C. Antigrapha , Vol. ix., Philo Musicae, etc., Societatis .
	Fleece, Fleet Street.	39	Swan and Rummer, Finch Lane. 2 Feb., 1726.	It seems evident that the Lodge at the Fleece, and the Lodge at the Swan and Rummer were separate bodies, the former lapsing before the latter was constituted in 1726. Though Lane puts the Fleece as No. 39 ( Masonic Records , p. 30) he does not carry the name forward into the main section of his Book (p. 49). No. 39 lapsed in 1751, and the warrant was transferred in 1756 to Stockton on Tees. The original Minute Book of the Swan and Rummer is still in existence there. For full particu- lars of this interesting Lodge see A.Q.C. , viii., 196; x., 133, 150; xi., 25; xvi., 38; xix., 27; and Free- mason , Christmas number, 1897, pp. 15-18.
	Crown and Harp, St. Martin's Lane.	—		Does not appear in any List after 1725.
	Rummer, Henrietta Street. July, 1724.	37A 37B	Three King's, Spitalfields; Sash and Cocoa Tree, Upper Moorfields.	Erased in 1746. The Lodge moved to Spitalfields in 1731, and to the Sash and Cocoa Tree in 1732; or more probably the Lodge lapsed in 1730, its place in the List being filled by a new Lodge at Spitalfields constituted in 1731.

[Duke of Wharton, G.M.]

At the Grand Lodge held at Merchant | Taylor's Hall
Monday 24th June 1723.

Present

His Grace the Duke of Wharton	G: Master
The Reverend J. T. Desaguliers	LLD. FRS. D: G.M.
Joshua Timson	. . . . .	} G: Wardens [a]

Ordered

That William Cowper Esq<sup>r</sup> a Brother of the Horn Lodge at [b]
Westminster | be Secretary to the Grand Lodge. |

[a] Something which was originally written after Anderson's name has been carefully erased with a knife. The only other instances in this Minute Book where two lines have been devoted to a Grand Warden are under dates 28th February and 12th December, 1726, where substitutes "officiated for S<sup>r</sup>. Tho. Prendergast Bart." Accepting Anderson's statement that he had been appointed Grand Warden earlier in the year in the place of William Hawkins, there seems no reason for such a phrase here, and it is very remarkable that alterations should have been made in connexion with the first and last entries of Anderson's name in the Book, the second having certainly been made by Anderson himself.

[b] William Cowper, Clerk of the Parliaments, died 1740; eldest son of Spencer Cowper, Attorney General to the Prince of Wales, Chief Justice in Chester, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, &c., died 1728.

His uncle, Sir William Cowper, was in 1706 created Baron Cowper.

His brother, the Rev<sup>d</sup>. John Cowper, was father of William Cowper, the poet.

A copy of the 'Old Charges' in the Q.C. Library, known as the Woodford MS. has the book plate of William Cowper, Clerk of the Parliaments, and the inscription:—

This is a Very Ancient Record of Masonry wch. was copyed for me by W<sup>m</sup>. Reid, Secretary to the Grand Lodge 1728.

[a] The Order of the 17th Jan: 172<sup>3</sup> printed at the end of the Constitutions page 91. [ for the publishing the said Constitutions was read, purporting, That they had been before | approved in Manuscript by the Grand Lodge, and were then (viz!) 17th January, aforesaid |
[b] produced in Print and approved by the Society. |

Then |

The Question was moved, That the said General Regulations be confirmed, [ so far as they are consistent with the Ancient Rules of Masonry. |

[c] The previous question was moved and put, whether the words [so far | as they are consistent with the Ancient Rules of Masonry] be part of the | Question. |

Resolved in the affirmative |

But the main Question was not put |

And the Question was moved. |

That it is not in the Power of any person, or Body of men, to make | any Alteration, or Innovation in the Body of Masonry without the | Consent first obtained of the Annual Grand Lodge. |

And the Question being put accordingly | Resolved |

[a] The Gregorian Calendar was adopted in England in 1752, and January 1st was then made the first day of the legal year instead of March 25th. Thus this entry would now read "17th January 1723."

[b] I do not propose to compare the text of the Minutes generally with Anderson's own account of the proceedings in Grand Lodge, but I must point out that here some doubts seem to be thrown upon his statements. On page 91 of the Book of Constitutions referred to in the Minutes it is said that the Book was produced in print and approved on 17th January, 1723, and apparently this statement is called in question. Certainly there was no further confirmation of the General Regulations at this Meeting, for "the main question was not put," and it would almost seem as if some alterations had been made "without the consent first obtained of the annual Grand Lodge." It is quite possible that the dispute arose in regard to the power of Brethren at a Quarterly Communication to amend or alter the Regulations, for according to Regulation xxxix. this could only be done at the Annual Meeting before dinner, when even the youngest Apprentice could be present and vote.

It should be noted that the first edition of Anderson's Book of Constitutions was advertised for sale on 28th February, 1723.

[c] In the original, the words "so far as they are consistent with the Ancient Rules of Masonry" are in square brackets, as shewn.

[Duke of Wharton, G.M.]

24 June]

Ordered |

That the Auditors do make up their Accounts on or before |
Wednesday the last day of July next. |

The two Grand Wardens were sent out into the Hall to give Notice, That | if any Brother had any Appeal, or any matter to offer, for the good of the Society, he might come in and offer the same, in this Grand Lodge; and two | other Brethren were appointed by the Grand Master, to take the Grand | Wardens places, in the mean while. |

The Grand Wardens being returned, reported they had given
Notice | accordingly. |

Then the Grand Master being desired to name his Successor, and | declining to do so, but referring the Nomination to the Lodge. |

The Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> The Earl of Dalkeith was proposed, to be put | in Nomination as Grand Master for the Year ensuing. |

And two Brethren of his Lordship's Lodge (he being absent in | Scotland) acquainted the Lodge, that his Lordship had declared he would | accept the Office if chosen. |

Accordingly |

The Earl of Dalkeith was agreed, to be put in Nomination as |
Grand-Master for the ensuing Year. |

The Lodge was also acquainted, That (in case of his Election)
he had | nominated D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers for his Deputy. |

And the 35th General Regulation, purporting that the Grand Master | being install'd shall next nominate and appoint his Deputy Grand Master | &c. was read.

Then |

The Question was proposed and put by the Grand Master. |

That the Deputy nominated by the Earl of Dalkeith be approved. |

[a] The Earl of Dalkeith is noted as a member of the Lodge at the Rummer Tavern, Charing Cross.

[Duke of Wharton, G.M.]

[1723

As the Tellers reported the Numbers. |

Then |

The Grand Master, in the Name of the new Grand Master, propos'd Brother | Francis Sorell and Brother John Senex for Grand Wardens the ensuing year. |

Agreed That they should be Balloted for after Dinner. |

Adjourned to Dinner.

After Dinner, and some of the regular Healths drank, the Earl of Dalkeith | was Declared Grand-Master according to the abovementioned Resolution | of the Grand Lodge. |

The late Grand Master declaring he had some doubt upon the above | mentioned Division in the Grand Lodge before Dinner, whether the Majority | was for approving D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers, or whether the Tellers had truly reported | the Numbers ; proposed the said Question to be now put again in the General | Lodge. |

And accordingly insisting on the said Question being now put, and | putting the same, his Worship and several Brethren withdrew out of the Hall | as dividing against approving D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers. |

And being so withdrawn. |

Brother Robinson producing a written authority from the Earl | of Dalkeith for that purpose, did declare in his Name, That his Worship had | agreeably to the Regulation in that behalf appointed, and did appoint D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers | his Deputy, and Brothers Sorrel and Senex Grand Wardens ; and also Brother | Robinson did in his said Worship's Name and behalf of the whole Fraternity, | protest against the above proceedings of the late Grand Master in first putting | the Question of Approbation, and what followed thereon as unprecedented, | unwarrantable and Irregular, and tending to introduce into the Society a | Breach of Harmony, with the utmost disorder and Confusion. |

[Earl of Dalkeith, G.M.]

24 June]

[69] Then the said late Grand Master and those who withdrew with | him |
him being returned into the Hall, and acquainted with the foresaid
Declaration | of Brother Robinson |

The late Grand Master went away from the Hall without any |
Ceremony. |

After other regular Healths drank |

The Lodge adjourned. |

[c]

Agreed Nem. Con. |

2<sup>d</sup> Whether the Grand Ma<sup>r</sup> has not power to appoint his Deputy. |

[a] This phrase, which is repeated on other occasions, seems to dispose of the contention that a Lodge cannot be adjourned.

[b] The fact that Dr. Desaguliers signed these Minutes as Deputy Grand Master seems to show that they were written out at the time, as was no doubt the case at some later meetings also. We may infer from Anderson's statement (Constitutions, 1738, p. 116) that after the Duke of Wharton went away, Dr.
Desaguliers took the chair. Had the Minutes been signed after confirmation at the next Meeting it would probably have been done by the Earl of Dalkeith, who then occupied the chair as Grand Master.

[c] It would seem as though these resolutions are directed against the Duke of Wharton, who had attempted to usurp powers which had not been conferred upon the office of Grand Master, and to curtail those of Grand Lodge.

[b]The phrases "in or near London"; "within the Bills of Mortality" (p. 56); "within ten miles of London" (p. 59); &c. should be noted as indicating the admittedly restricted jurisdiction of Grand Lodge.

[c]For some particulars in regard to the action brought against Prichard see the Daily Post, 18th May, 1723, quoted in A.Q.C., xxii., 76, 84, 88. Prichard seems to have been a member of Lodges at the Half Moon in the Strand; the Rose and Crown, King Street, Westminster; and later (see Minutes of 15th December, 1730) of the present Lodge of Fortitude and Old Cumberland, No. 12. Petitions for further relief are referred to in the Minutes of 27th December, 1729; 15th December, 1730; and 6th April, 1738.

[a] It will be noticed that these contributing Lodges are arranged almost exactly in the same order as in the MS. List of 1723. Two Houses, however, do not appear in that list, vizt., The St. Alban's Tavern, in St. Alban's Street, and The Sun, in King Street, Westminster. The latter coming between the Ship, Fish Street Hill, and the Anchor and Crown, St. Clements, can be at once identified as the Bell, King Street, Westminster. The St. Alban's Tavern presents greater difficulties, as just at this point the Dolphin, Tower Street, and the Crown, at Acton, have been transposed, and no Lodge is known to have met at the St. Alban's Tavern before 1741. We must, therefore, regard this either as a Lodge not elsewhere recorded, or as an earlier meeting place of the Busybody, Charing Cross; Dick's Coffee House, Strand; or the Ship, without Temple Bar. But note should be taken of the statement by 'Verus Comodus,' in the 2nd Edition of The Grand Mystery of Freemasons Discovered (published 28th October, 1724), that a new Lodge was to be opened at the St. Alban's Tavern, "for regulating the Modern abuses which have crept into the Ancient Fraternity of Free-Masons"; and of the Meetings at this house of these 'Real Masons' advertised in the Daily Journal certainly down to 1731. See A.Q.C., viii., 125, 144; and xxiii., 326.

[b] The contribution from the 'Blew Boar' was no doubt 10s. 6d., which would make the total correct.

a Generall Charity as follows (viz<sup>t</sup>) |

That in Order to promote the Charitable Disposition of the Society | of ffree Masons and render it more Extensive and beneficiall to the whole | Body a Monthly Colleccon be made in Each Lodge according to the Quality | and Number of the Said Lodge and put into a Joynt
Stock. |

That a Treasur<sup>r</sup> be appointed by the Grand Master to whom every |
Quarter the Said Contributions Shall be paid. |

That when the Members of any Lodge who are Contributors to the |
Joynt Stock shall be induced to bestow any part of it for the relief | of a poor Brother, the Ma<sup>r</sup> and Wardens of Such Lodge shall certifie | (the Name and Necessity of the person together with Such Sum<sup>e</sup> as they | shall think reasonable to allott him out of the Said Stock) to the Grand | Master, Deputy, and Grand Wardens, that they may order the said
Sum<sup>e</sup> | to be paid to Such person if thought reasonable |

That if any Brethren shall meet Irregularly and make Masons at | any place within ten miles of London the persons present at the making |
(The New Brethren Excepted) shall not be admitted even as Visitors into | any Regular Lodge whatsoever unless they come and make Such | Submission to the Grand Ma<sup>r</sup> and Grand Lodge as they shall think fit to impose upon them. |

[a] Anthony Sayer, First Grand Master, 1717. For some particulars of this brother's later career, see Bro. A. F. Calvert's History of the Old King's Arms Lodge, No. 28, of which Sayer seems to have been Tyler at the time of his death.
See also paper by Bro. Calvert in A.Q.C., xiv., 181.

The Champion; or The Evening Advertiser, of 19th January, 1742, mentions Sayer's death; and The London Evening Post, of Saturday, January 16th, to Tuesday, January 19th, 1742, gives the following particulars:—

A few days since died, aged about 70 years, Mr. Anthony Sayer, who was Grand-Master of the most Ancient and Honourable Society of Free and Accepted Masons in 1717. His corpse was followed by a great Number of Gentlemen of that Honourable Society of the best Quality, from the Shakespear's-Head Tavern in the Piazza in Covent-Garden, and decently interr'd in Covent-Garden Church.

The Register of St. Paul's Church, Covent Garden, gives his burial under date
5th January:—

Anthony Sayer from St. Giles in the Fields.

The Stewards' Lodge was meeting at the Shakespear's Head at this time.

[b] The Committee to whom it was referred to consider of proper Methods to | Regulate the Generall Charity, after severall Meetings for that purpose came to the | following resolutions, which they submit to the Judgment of the Grand Lodge, as | Conducive to the End proposed by the Reference. |

1st That it is the opinion of the Commēe that the Contributions from the Severall Lodges be | paid Quarterly and be Voluntary. |

2<sup>d</sup> That no Br. be recommended by any Lodge as an Object of this Charity but who was a | Member of Some regular Lodge which shall contribute to the Same Charity on or before | the Twenty first Day of Nov<sup>r</sup> 1724 when the Gen<sup>l</sup> Charity was first proposed in the | Grand Lodge. |

[c] 3<sup>d</sup> That no Br who has been admitted a Member of any Lodge Since that time, or shall | hereafter be so admitted be recommended till five Years after Such Admision, and, as to | the Method or rules to be observed by the . . . . . [a] Article xiii. of the General Regulations forms the basis of much that has been written on the question of degrees. It is worthy of note that this alteration in the rule was made immediately after certain brethren who were members of a regular Lodge as well as of the Philo Musica Societas had been summoned 'for making Masons irregularly.'

[b] The original of this report, signed by Alex. Hardine, Chairman, and eight other members of the Committee, is preserved amongst the Rawlinson MSS. at the Bodleian Library. See paper by Dr. W. J. Chetwode Crawley in A.Q.C., xi., 34.

stances of the persons to be relieved, the | Sums to be paid, the times
 the Continuance Suspending or taking off Such Allowance or terms of payment, ^ with the reasons thereof, whether arising | from the Circumstances of the Assisted Br being <sup>bettered</sup> ^ or from his behaviour in any respect rendring | him unfitt to have it Continued, and in Generall all other Circumstances, attending the regular | and ordinary distribution of the Charity where the Grand Lodge think fitt to put any one | upon it, the Commēe are of Opinion they are most decently and Securely left to | the Wisdom, Care, and discreton of the Grand Lodge, to do therein from time to time as cases | shall happen in a Manner most Agreeable to the Exigencies of them, which as the Commēe | cannot foresee with any Certainty, So they are unable to lay down any fix'd proposalls | concerning them. But as it may fall out that a Brother who is in all respects qualified for relief, | and in Need of it, may by the p̄fure of his Circumstances be forced to apply (perhaps a good | while) before a quarterly Communication may be had or the Grand Lodge Asssembled for a present | relief or Subsistence till he can make his cafe known to the Grand Lodge for their further favour the | Commēe took that cafe into their particular consideracon, and as to that are humbly of Opinion. |

4th That Three pounds and no more may be given to any particular distresed Brother who shall | be recommended by any Lodge as an object of this Charity, without the Consent of the Grand Lodge. |

5th That the above Casual Charity of three pounds or under be disposed off, as there shall be | Occasion, by a Standing Commēe of Seven to
 time being, and three other Members of the Grand Lodge to be Named by the Grand Master, of which | Commēe Three always to be a Quorum. And it being absolutely necessary that for the Collecting and | Disbursing the Sums which shall be given for so charitable a purpose there should be a Treasurer or | Receiver
 publickly Entrusted and Known, the Commēe are further of opinion. |

6th That there be a Treasurer to be nominated by the Grand Master and approved | by the Grand Lodge, and

[Duke of Richmond, G.M.]

27 Nov.]

- 7th That after the first Nomination all future Treasurers be nominated upon every | Election of a Grand Ma<sup>r</sup>: by the New Elected Grand Ma<sup>r</sup>: and approved as before. |
- 8th That all recommendations of any Brother as an Object of the casual Charity of | three pounds or under be made to the Said Treasurer who is to give Notice of the | Application forthwith to the Comm<sup>e</sup>e of Seven for their directions in the Matter. |

The Comm<sup>e</sup>e then proceeded to consider of a proposall made to them (Viz<sup>t</sup>.) |

That the Treasurer should from time to time give Some Collaterall Security for the due | performance of his Trust, which they found or Judged to be a Matter of some Nicety in many | respects; as well in regard that it is <sup>probable</sup> ~~possible~~ None will ever be named to that Employment of | trouble, and no profit, but Some Brother of Distinction and Sufficiency, and who therefore | rather does than receives a favour in it; as that for the Same reason Such Brother would not care | to ask any others, Especially not of the Craft, to be Collaterall Security for him, Nor would any | other in all Likelihood in a Voluntary undertaking of this Nature; which induced the Comm<sup>e</sup>e | to think that the requiring any such kind of Security would render it at least very difficult | if not impracticable to gett any Treasurer at all, more Especially Such a one, in respect of rank | and Estimation as the Comm<sup>e</sup>e believe every Brother would be Glad always to See in that Trust | and whose acting in it would really prove highly for the Credit and Service of the design itself, | for which and many other reasons of the Same Tendancy, the Comm<sup>e</sup>e concluded against ~~the~~ | requiring of the Treasurer, any Such Collaterall Security, or that he should find any other | person or persons to be bound with or for him. Yet however unnecessary they think it may | and hope it always will be to require even any Security whatsoever from one whose Rank | fortune, Probity and Honour might be alone Sufficient in the Case, and acting especially | in a matter of publick Charity to Mafons; Himself a Mafon, and under the high and | Solemn tye and Obligation of that Great Character: The Comm<sup>e</sup>e notwithstanding | conceived that no Brother who may be Nominated for this purpose would probably decline | giving the Grand Lodge the Satisfaction if they require it, of his Own Single Personall | Security, and therefore Submit as their humble Opinion. |

9th That the Treasurer do give his personall Security by his Own Bond to the Grand Ma<sup>r</sup> | Deputy Grand Ma<sup>r</sup> Grand Wardens and the Three Bretheren of the aforesaid Commee | of Seven not officers, in the penalty and with ~~the~~ Condi<sup>o</sup>n to be approved by the Grand | Lodge hereafter if they think fitt to require it. |

And as concerning the Treasurers accounts the Committee were further | of opinion. |

10th That the Treasurer do produce his Accounts of his receipts and Disbursements (either by Order of the | Grand Lodge or Commee of Seven) fair and lay them before the Grand Lodge at every Quarterly Communication | with the Vouchers for the Disbursements, The Items of the account to be then publickly read over, and if any | Dispute or Difficulty shall Arise upon any of them, the matter to be referred to Such five Brethren | present as the person then presiding shall Nominate, and the Grand Lodge approve, to Examine into | the Grounds of the Same against the next Quarterly Communication when they are to report their | proceedings in the case with the state of it for the final Judgment and direction of the Grand Lodge. And |

The Commee foreseeing that such a person as it may be thought proper to nominate | from time to time to the Office of Treasurer upon this occasion, might from many | causes not always be able to attend the personall discharge of it; and judging it | reasonable that if he requires or wants the Assistance of another, Such assistant | should have a Suitable reward <sup>which</sup> ~~and~~ (as the Treasurer himself makes no profit) | it cannot be Expected he should be at the charge of, therefore they do further | submit it as their opinion. |

27 Nov.]

12th That if the Treasurer when appointed shall find it necessary to Employ under him an | Afsistant or Clerk, he may be at Liberty so to do, Such Clerk or Afsistant to be a Brother, and to | have Such Allowance from time to time by way of poundage as the Afores<sup>d</sup> Commee of Seven | shall think fitt, out of the Moneys passing thro' the Treasurers hands, not Exceeding twelve | pence in the pound, without the particular allowance and direction of the Grand Lodge, and | this to be Charged and Allowed in the Treasurers Accounts. |

13th The Commec think it necessary that every Treasurer upon his Appointment be desired to | give the Earliest Generall Notice he can, where he may be applied to from time to time, for the | purpose of this Charity as need shall require. |

All which they submitt to your Judgment and Difcretion. | and Propogation of the | Craft, and I hope there is as little Occasion to take Notice of (what I am much | more unwilling to mention) the Share I have had during his necessary Absence | in furthering the same Designs. |

I hope I have acted in all your Sights so as to leave no Room to doubt | of my Zeal for the Utility and Honour of the Ancient Fraternity. |

You may remember (Brethren) that at the last Quarterly |
Communication, (which is the proper time for that purpose) Care was taken | to a Degree of exactness of every Step preparatory to the Grand Feast |
you then determined to hold on S<sup>t</sup> John's day next. |

And that particular provision was made and direction given | for tickets to be made out and returned at least fourteen days before that day. |

This you were sensible was perfectly necessary to the end that those concern'd | to provide for you might have some measure to go by in the doing of it, without w<sup>ch</sup> | it is really impracticable to do it, with any Decency, if at all. |

Accordingly 500 Tickets were immediately made out by me
<sup>and</sup>
~~to be~~ | lodg'd in the hands of Your present Secretary, with directions to be distributed in | due time proportionably among the several Lodges, recorded in the Grand | Book. |

And had that been effectually done, perhaps Your present trouble had | been saved. |

But Brethren when the day of Return came I found a very | inconsiderable one. |

The Acco<sup>t</sup> stands thus. | and upon visiting some Lodges, a reason for it, which, whether it surprized

or | concerned me most I can't well say (viz<sup>t</sup>) That either they had no
Tickets at all | sent 'em or not a sufficient Number. I have heard too, another Reason given | why so few Tickets have been as yet taken, which whether

[Earl of Inchiquin, G.M.]

19 Dec.]

I am rightly | informed in or no, is better known among You (i.e.) That some Brethren intend | to take 'em at the Hall door. |

Brethren it was (principally indeed) upon Acco<sup>t</sup> of the first of these | that I conven'd You at present, thinking it an Emergency that would Justify | my using the Power given for this purpose by the 24th
Constitution to Your | Grand Master. |

I propose two things by it. |

1st To restore myself to Your good Opinions, if any of Your Lodges should think | there has been an undue Neglect of 'em upon this Occasion. |

Brethren I shall not (because I cannot) say there has not, But | as it is not rational or consistent to beleive that I (who have in all prescedent Instances (however small) endeavoured to do my Duty towards all of You, to | the most extreme point of Nicety, could possibly forget myself in one of | such consequence, So in fact I have not: ffor all the Tickets were made | out and delivered by me for the Use of all the Lodges in the Grand Book | without distinction in due time to answer all our Expectations. |

And |

2<sup>dly</sup> And Brethren the other thing I propose is to retrieve this |
Omission in the best manner now possible; which is by desiring all the | Lodges present, who have taken Tickets, to return 'em now, if they have | not already, and those who have taken none, or not a Sufficient Number | of Tickets to take 'em now from the Grand Warden, who is ready to deliver | them to you, so as a Return of the Tickets or money may be made to our | Brother Lambert at his House in Pall Mall on or before Saturday | next at furthest.

This Brethren will be time short enough for your Officers | to make a decent and suitable provision for you. |

And Brethren that they may be able to do that, I must | beg of
You to desire Your Lodges not to think of taking 'em at the | Door of the Hall. |

You cannot but be sensible what a hardship it must be upon
Your | Officers, to be under so great an Uncertainty as that must produce. |

Earl of Inchiquin, G.M.][1727
19 Dec.]

If You take that Method, give me leave to say You will be Egyptian | Task-Masters to them; You will set them to make Brick without straw | and perhaps punish 'em for falling short in their Work. |

This should move you upon this point, besides the Consideration | how much the Reputation and Dignity of the Craft is concerned, in | having a decent, regular and orderly Entertainment. |

So that much for our sakes, and principally for Your own, I | beg that Method of taking Tickets, may not be thought of. |

Brethren when I shall have done my utmost in this Station | I am deeply sensible, I shall yet stand in great need of Your pardon and | Indulgence for myself and bring so near the end of my present Employ<sup>mt</sup> | (perhaps) I may as properly ask it, (in this Assembly) as upon any other | Occasion. It is only upon this Principle that I presume to desire and | hope for it (viz<sup>t</sup> ) That my Errors are truly owing to a want of | Capacity and Skill equal to the Task in which I must yield to | every Brother. |

But not to any defect of regard or even Love for the Ancient | and Right Worshipful Fraternity in which I will yield to none. |

The Grand Warden accordingly delivered out several Tickets to | such Lodges as were not provided, and they were desired to return what | should not be disposed of by Saturday next at furthest to M<sup>r</sup> Lambert | at his house in Pall Mall with whom Tickets will be left to be delivered | till Saturday aforesaid Inclusive. |

Brother Blackerby taking notice of the Method used | by some Brethren of taking Tickets at the Hall Door, as also of the | neglect complained of by the Deputy Grand Master, in the distribution | of the Tickets, for the ensuing Grand Feast, proposed that the same might | be taken into consideration by the Grand Lodge on S<sup>t</sup> John's day next | ensuing at Mercers Hall, and desired a Minute might be made thereof. |

The Motion being made, and the Question put the same | was agreed to Nemine Con. And the Brethren present were desired | by the Deputy Grand Master to come prepared with such Schemes as they | should Judge proper and necessary for preventing such Irregularities for the | future. |

That the Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication | be read. |

The senior Grand Warden accordingly read the said Minutes | in his place. |

Pursuant to an Article in the aforesaid Minutes (requir | ing all the regular Lodges to give in the exact time when they were | severally Constituted) some of the Members delivered the Acco<sup>t</sup> as | required, and such as had not complied with the aforesaid Order | were directed to do it before the next Quarterly Communication. |

The General Healths were all drank as usual. |

The Grand Master observing that some Brethren attended | without their Jewells and others unclothed. |

Ordered |

That they take more care for the future to appear | in the Grand Lodge in due form. |

The |

The Master of the one Tun Lodge in Noble Street having | acquainted the Grand Lodge that a certain Woman who was | a Servant in the house where their Lodge was held had aspersed | the members of the said Lodge in a very scandalous manner, | whereupon they had obtained a Warrant from a Justice of the | Peace (which Warrant was produced and read) in order to appre | hend her and bring her to condign Punishment for the said offence, | and whereas the Society of Masons in general were affected | thereby. The Grand Master proposed. |

That if the said One Tun Lodge should acquit themselves | of the Charge when the same should be tryed, the Grand Lodge | should contribute ————— towards the Expense they shall have | been at in prosecuting the said Woman. |

Agreed to Nemine con |

Several other matters relating to the well governing the | Society in general were proposed and agreed to ; But it is not Judged | proper to committ the same to writing. |

A Petition was presented to the Deputy Grand Master by W<sup>m</sup> | Benn Master and Job Beardsley Senior Warden of the Lodge held at | the Mag Pye against Bishopgate Street Church, signed by Gerard | Hatley, Joseph Burr, and Obadiah Wynne the Master and Wardens | of a Lodge held for some time past at Bishopgate Coffee house, declaring | their Intention and earnest Desire to be constituted as soon as it will suit | the Convenience of the Deputy Grand Master to confer that Honour | upon them, and humbly praying to be admitted among the regular | Lodges at this Quarterly Communication. |

The Deputy Grand Master did (upon the recommendation of the | Gentlemen who appear'd for them, and also upon their application to him |

[a]The Lodge at the Magpie (No. 45 in the Engraved List of 1729) was erased in 1737. The Lodge at the Bishopsgate Coffee House (No. 53 in the same List) united with the Swan and Rummer, Finch Lane, in 1743.

some time agoe for the said purpose) Dispence with their being at present | irregular, and admitted them into the Grand Lodge. |

It being told to the Deputy Grand Master that a Brother (who was | a Warden of a Lodge) attended without in expectation of his Master's | coming who had the Custody of the Jewels belonging to their Lodge | and for want of which he could not gain Admittance ; and Several |

Members present vouching for him, the Deputy Grand Master Ordered the Officer | who kept the Door, to admit the said Brother, who accordingly took his place | in the Lodge. |

The general Healths were drank as usual. |

Also the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Earl of Inchiquin's Health was drank with great | pleasure and with the Thanks of the Lodge for the Honour of his Company |

M<sup>r</sup>. Labelle the present Master of the Lodge held at Madrid in | Spain stood up and confirm'd what was some time past delivered in a Letter | from the said Lodge to the Grand Master and Grand Lodge in England | (concerning their Regularity and submission to us &c.) and acquitted himself | in a handsom manner like a Gentleman and a good Mason. |

Then the Health to the Brethren of the Madrid Lodge was propos'd | and drank with three Huzzas. |

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Grand Lodge that the R<sup>t</sup> | Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lord Coleraine the present Grand Master had directed him (in his | Lord<sup>sh</sup> absence) to take care to provide a person of Honour and Ability to | succeed to the Office of Grand Master on next S<sup>t</sup> John's day, for the year | ensuing, and that he had in pursuance of his Lord<sup>sh</sup> Commands invited | the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lord Kingston, who had signified his readinefs of | taking that High Office upon him provided the Brethren did unanimously ap | prove of him. |

The Earl of Inchiquin stood up and made a very handsome Speech to | the Lodge, in favour of the Lord Kingston which gave a general satisfaction |

Then the Deputy Grand Master proposed to the Grand Lodge,

[Lord Coleraine, G.M.]

that | the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> James Lord Kingston of the Kingdom of Ireland be | nominated our Grand Master for the ensuing Year. |

The same was agreed to Nemine con |

His Lord<sup>sh</sup>'s Health was accordingly propos'd and drank as Grand |
Master elect, with the usual Ceremony, and a general Applause. |

Then it was proposed that a Grand Feast should be kept on next | S<sup>t</sup> John's day as Usual, which was likewise agreed to. |

The Deputy Grand Master then declared he would keep the said |
Feast at Stationers Hall : |

And |

And D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers proposed (that in order to have the same conducted | in the best manner) a certain Number of Stewards should be chosen, who | should have the intire Care and Direction of the said ffeast
(together | with the Grand Wardens) pursuant to the printed Regulations, which, | being seconded by M<sup>r</sup> Collis. |

The Deputy Grand Master desired that all those who were willing | to accept the said Office of Steward would advance to the Table
& declare | the same by signing their Names before the Chair. |

The Earl of Inchiquin was thereupon pleased to offer himself | in a very obliging manner to be one of the Stewards on that Occasion. |
But, his Lord<sup>sh</sup> having been so lately Grand Master, the Lodge thought | it would be too great a trouble to, as well as too great a Condescention | in his Lord<sup>sh</sup> to accept of that Office, therefore would not suffer it, But | at the same time exprest their utmost Gratitude for the Great Honour | and Love his Lord<sup>sh</sup> had shown for the Brotherhood and the Craft. |

Then the several Brethrer. hereafter named advanced to the Table | and signed their Names respectively, to be Stewards at the next Grand |
Feast, in Number twelve, and in the Order following viz: |

[a]The Rose in Mary la Bone is now the Old King's Arms Lodge, No. 28, and the Swan at Tottenham High Cross is the Castle Lodge of Harmony, No. 26.
These are the only Lodges in the List which are still in existence. They both retain the privilege of sending Grand Stewards to the Annual Festival, the former having been re-instated in 1904 after a lapse of over fifty years.

The Healths of the twelve Stewards was proposed and drank with | twelve alluding to the twelve Signes of the Zodiack as well as to their | Number which they returned Jointly in like manner. |

The Stewards likewise propos'd D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers Health for reviving | the Office of Stewards (which appeared to be agreeable to the Lodge in |

Then the Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Stewards, he had | brought with him 200 Tickets ready seal'd &c. to deliver to such Masters or | Wardens of Lodges, present as were willing to take them, and several Motions | being made concerning the Disposal of the Tickets, the twelve Stewards elect | desired Leave to withdraw in order to consider thereof, which being granted | them they accordingly withdrew for some time and being returned |

M<sup>r</sup> Collys (whom they had chose their Speaker) reported that it was the | Desire of the Stewards, That the Masters of Lodges present should take as | many Tickets now as they thought they could dispose of,

[a]The MS. List of 1723 shews that John Revis was then Junior Warden of the Lodge at the Crown and Anchor, St. Clements. The List of 1725 gives him as Senior Warden of the same Lodge then meeting at the Star and Garter, Covent Garden. As he now appears as Master of the Lodge at the Globe in the Strand it is fair to assume that the Lodge had again removed some time before December, 1727, when this house is first mentioned in the Minutes. This removal is not noted in Bro. Lane's Masonic Records. But if we ignore the membership of Revis, the position in which the Globe in the Strand appears on p. 88 between Nos. 23 and 27 of the Engraved List of 1729 would seem to warrant the suggestion that it is a meeting place of the King's Arms, Strand, hitherto unnoted.

The Master and Wardens did accordingly take 179 Tickets beginning | with N<sup>o</sup> 1 (12 whereof the Earl of Inchiquin had) and the remaining | 21 Tickets out of the 200 were delivered to the Stewards, who proposed to be | at the Ship Tavern on Fish Street hill next Tuesday Evening to receive | from the Deputy Grand Master the rest of the Tickets which his Wor : | ship promised to send them. |

[115] All Business being dispatched the Deputy Grand Master clos'd the |
Lodge in fform, concluding with the Masons Song. |

A Petition was presented to the Chair, signed by several | persons (being Masons) now living at Fort William in Bengall in | the East Indies, wherein they acknowledged the Authority of the Grand | Master in England, and humbly praying to be constituted into a | Regular Lodge. |

The said Petition was read, and M<sup>r</sup> George Pomfret (a Member | of the Grand Lodge, and Brother to one of the Gentlemen who signed | the Petition spoke to the same, and offered himself to perform that | service : He intending to make a Voyage to that place in a short | time. |

The Deputy Grand Master recommended the said Petition to | the New Grand Master, who was pleas'd to allow thereof, and Ordered | Brother Pomfret to attend him at his Lordp's house for Instructions. |

His Lord<sup>p</sup> likewise Ordered the Secretary to prepare a Commifision | to Impower the said M<sup>r</sup> George Pomfret to Constitute a Lodge of Free | and Accepted Masons at Fort William in Bengall aforementioned, | and such ample Instructions as may be necessary for that purpose agree : | able to ancient Custom, and the present Regulations of this Society. |

Then the Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Master Elect, | the Grand Wardens, together with the Grand Lodge, adjourned into | the Hall to Dinner (preceeded by the twelve Stewards) and took | their places at the Master's Table, where they had a very Elegant | Entertainment provided by the said Stewards. |

Dinner being ended, and Grace being said. |

The Deputy Grand Master proposed the Usual publick Healths | which being drank by the whole Society. |

He marched in Procefsion, attended by the Stewards, the Secretary, | and Grand Wardens, round the Hall, and being returned to the Chair, | thanked the Brethren in the name of the Lord Colerane Grand | Master, for the Honour they had done him in choosing him their | Grand Master : and made his Lordp's Apology for his Absence, then | having Spoke to them in his own behalf to the like effect, he acquainted | them that the

to be their Grand Master for the Year ensuing | which was received with a general Satisfaction. |

Then the Deputy Grand Master resigned the Chair to the Lord |
Kingston whom he installed (in the Name of the Lord Colerane) | Grand Master with the usual Solemnity. |

His Lord<sup>sh</sup> having exprefs'd himself in a very handsom manner |

the same | manner as the late Grand Officers had done, and being returned

whom | he continued in the Post of Secretary to the Grand Lodge. |

The Healths of the Lord Inchiquin and others late Grand Masters |

[a] The Grand Master proposed going to the Old Play House on next | munday Night and desired as many of the Brethren, (as could conveniently | go) to accompany him ; That he had bespoke a Play and had ordered a new | Prologue and Epilogue to be made, which was to be spoken that Night on | the Stage in Honour of Masonry. |

[a] Some particulars of this bespeak can be found in Cole's Engraved Constitutions, 1731. The prologue was spoken by William Mills, apparently, at an earlier date, a member of the Lodge at the Crown at Acton. It will be noticed that "Bro. Mills junior" sold the Tickets.

In the following year Nathaniel Blackerby, Deputy Grand Master, wrote a Prologue and an Epilogue for a play similarly bespoke at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane. Blackerby "Order'd, That this Prologue and Epilogue be printed,
"for the benefit of Brother William Reid, Secretary to the Grand Lodge, and "that no Brother presume to print the same," and the print has the following introduction:—"On the 27th of January 1729-30, at the Anniversary Feast of Several Brethren did accordingly take Tickets of Brother Mills Jun<sup>r</sup> | who attended on that Acco<sup>t</sup> but some Disputes arising concerning the Cloathing | of the Brethren on that Occasion ; the same was debated, and the Motion being | made and the Question put, whether the Brethren who accompanied the | Grand Master to the Play should appear in their full Cloathing. |

It was carried in the affirmative. |

But several of the Brethren afterwards represented that their going in | Aprons, would be improper, for diverse reasons given, and it appearing that | the Majority of those who were inclined to wait on the Grand Master to the | Play were of that Opinion |

It was Resolved that all those Brethren who intended to appear at the | Play on Munday next should come in white Gloves without Aprons. |

Whereas a Petition directed to the Grand Master Dep<sup>y</sup> | Grand Master, and Grand Wardens, dated at Fort William 24th January | 1727 $\frac{7}{8}$  was presented at the last Quarterly Communication held on S<sup>t</sup> John's | day, praying that a regular Lodge might be there Constituted. |

These are therefore to Impower and authorize our Welbeloved Brother | George Pomfret to convene our Brethren in the East Indies, who have | signed the said Petition, and that he do, in our place and stead, Constitute a | regular Lodge, in due fform, at Fort William in Bengal in “tions in the Play to introduce the Apprentice's and Master's Song, all which “was performed with very great applause, the Brethren in the Pit and Boxes “joining in the Chorus.”

It will be observed that the Annual Feast actually took place on 29th January, 1730, not the 27th, as stated in the print, and that this second play is not referred to in the Minutes. The Prologue, which commences

“As a wild rake that courts a virgin fair,” was “spoken by Mr. Mills.” It appears in the Ahiman Rezon, 1756, and elsewhere. The Epilogue was “By way of Dialogue between Mr. Mills and Mrs. Sherburn.”

For further particulars of these and later bespeaks, see The Freemason, 1st December, 1906, and 19th January, 1907. See also Minutes of 13th December, 1733.

setting | forth, that they had been discontinued for some time but being again revived, | humbly prayed that they might be admitted into the Grand Lodge, and again | entred in the Book of Lodges. |

The Grand Master asked the Opinion of the Grand Lodge. |

Who consented that the Prayer of their Petition should be granted, and | being called in the Grand Master reprimanded them for their Neglect, on | which they promised a regular attendance on all Quarterly
Communications | for the future. |

A Petition directed as above was also presented by Martin |
O'Connor Esq<sup>r</sup>: Jun<sup>r</sup>: Grand Warden for himself and in behalf of several other | Brethren (ffree and accepted Masons) residing at Tunbridge Wells in the | County of Kent humbly praying that they may be constituted into a | regular Lodge. |

Ordered |

That the Prayer of the Petition be granted and that the Secretary do | prepare a Deputation to be signed by the Grand Master, Deputy

The Master of the Lodge at Madrid stood up and represented, that | his Lodge had never been regularly constituted by the Authority of the | Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Wardens in England | and therefore humbly prayed a Deputation for that purpose. |

Ordered |

That the Secretary do likewise prepare a Deputation to Impower |
Charles Labelle Master of the said Lodge to constitute them with such | other Instructions as is likewise necessary for that purpose. |

Then B<sup>r</sup>: Labelle's Health was drank, and after he drank the G.<sup>d</sup> |
Master's Health Deputy Grand Master's and Grand Wardens with all | the Brethrens present and prosperity to the Craft wheresoever dispersed. |

[a]The Lodge at Tunbridge Wells was not entered in the MS. List of 1730, nor does it appear in the Engraved Lists. See Minutes of 11th July, 1729.

[b]This brother appears as Charles de Labelye in the letter copied in the Minutes of 17th April, 1728.

Complaint being made that at the Lodge at the one Tun in Noble Street a person who was not a Mason was present at a Making, and that they made Masons upon a trifling Expence, only for the sake of a Small Reckoning, and that one Huddleston of that Lode brought one Templeman of the South sea house with him who was not a Mason and the obligation was not required. |

That the Master and Wardens of the Lodge at the One Tun in Noble Street do attend at the next Quarterly Communication to answer the said Complaint, and in the mean time that they endeavour to make the said Templeman a regular Mason, and that a Copy of the Order be delivered | them. |

Then D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers acquainted the Brethren that he found the Spirit of Charity reviving in several Lodges, and therefore proposed that the Report of the Committee of Charity should be read, that the Masters and Wardens present should declare whether they were of opinion that the proposals in that Report should be complied with, |

Then the Question being put, It passed in the Affirmative that the Report should be read which was done by the Junior Grand Warden | After the Report was read: |

The Deputy Grand Master rose up and acquainted the Brethren that he was appointed Treasurer of the General Charity by the Lord Inchiquin in the year 1727 when his Lord<sup>sh</sup> was Grand Master and that he was extremely concerned that in so long a time he had not received one shilling from the Lodges or any Brother, and in the Name of the Grand Master and Grand Wardens most earnestly recommended the General Charity to their Serious Consideration. |

After that it was agreed Nemine con that the Report should be sent to all the regular Lodges, and all the Brethren present promote the Charity at their respective Lodges, and said they hoped to give a good account of it | at the next Quarterly Meeting |

[125]

[a] Now represented by the Royal Alpha Lodge, No. 16. See Minutes of 25th June, 1728. Was this the William Huddleston who was expelled from the King's Head in Ivy Lane on 25th November, 1723?

[126]

The Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication were read. |

Then the Deputy Grand Master signified to the Lodge that he had | received an answer to the Article mentioned in the said Minutes relating to | a Complaint against the Lodge held at the One Tun in Noble Street which |
he ordered to be read. |

The said Answer was read accordingly. |

Then M<sup>r</sup> John Williams the Master of the said Lodge spoke to the matter | of the said Complaint and Satisfyed the Grand Lodge that they had been mis : | represented, and that they were no ways culpable in that affair. |

Then the Question being put whether the said M<sup>r</sup> John Williams | had fully answered and given entire Satisfaction to the Grand Lodge concerning | the said Complaint or not ? |

It passed in the Affirmative. |

Then the Deputy Grand Master stood up and spoke to the following | Effect, that he was appointed some time agoe Treasurer of the general Charity | but was concerned to find that he had not received any thing hitherto on that | Acco<sup>t</sup>. but that at the last Quarterly Communication it was limited that he | should receive at this time some Satisfactory Acco<sup>t</sup> concerning that Affair, that | the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lord
Dalkeith who first proposed the said general Charity | was out of Town, and on that Account and his not being able to get the Several | Keys of the Box belonging to his Lodge, was the reason the Money deposited | on the said Account was not as yet paid into his hands, (as had been ordered) but by | the next Quarterly Meeting it should be paid in : and he recommended it to the | Lodges present that they should consider of the general Charity, and give an | Account what they had done therein. |

[Lord Kingston, G.M.]

D<sup>r</sup> Desagulier spoke for the Horn Lodge, and in order to encourage every Lodge to contribute to the general Charity and that no Brother might not be discouraged who perhaps might not have Ability equal to their Inclination. |

11 July]

D<sup>r</sup> Desagulier spoke a second time and took notice of some Inconveniencies | which might attend this general Charity and particularly recommended that | they should admitt no person into the Society who can be supposed to come | in for the sake of the Loaves, and that none shall be intitled to the same who | are not regular and are Contributors thereto, and that the time of this Qualification | shall commence from their regular admision, in which he acquitted himself to | the general Satisfaction of all present. |

A Petition |

A Petition was presented and signed by several Brethren | residing in the City of Oxford, praying that a Deputation may be granted | for constituting them into a regular Lodge, promising to pay due | Obedience to the Grand Master, and his Officers, and proposing to meet | every Thursday at the Crown in the Corn Market. |

The Deputy Grand Master having received Satisfaction as to | their being good Masons, ordered the Secretary to prepare a Deputati : | : on accordingly.

Bro<sup>r</sup> Robinson Master of the Lodge at the Ship on | Fishstreet-hill acquainted the Deputy Grand Master that several | good Masons met at Scarburgh in Yorkshire in the summer season | and were desirous to meet as Masons, humbly prayed a Deputation | for constituting a Lodge there. |

Ordered |

That the Secretary prepare a Deputation accordingly. |

M<sup>r</sup> O'Connor the Junior Grand Warden represented that the | Lodge he had ordered lately to be constituted at Tunbridge Wells was | omitted to be inserted in the printed Book of Lodges and therefore prayed | that it might be entred in the next Book as usual. |

[a]The Lodge at Oxford appears in the MS. List of 1730. It was erased in 1736.

[b]The Lodge at Scarborough appears in the MS. List of 1730. It was erased in 1754.

But the Deputy Grand Master having received no Certificate | that they were Constituted according to the Leave given them it was declared | that till such Certificate was returned they could not be entred in the Book. |

The Officers of the Lodge at the Queen's Head in Knave's Acre | represented that their Lodge was misplaced in the printed Book, whereby | they lost their Rank, and humbly prayed that the said mistake might be | regulated. |

Bro<sup>r</sup> Chocke acquainted the Grand Lodge that the several | Lodges stood in the List according to the Date of their Constitution. |

The said Complaint was dismis'd. |

great Love and | Regard to the Craft, the Brethren expressed their Gratitude in | a publick manner. |

The Deputy Grand Master further informed the Grand | Lodge that his Lordp<sup>s</sup> late arrival in Town made it impossible | for him at present to fix upon a proper Person to be Grand Master | for the ensuing Year, but he hoped in a few days, he should be able | to recommend a Person of
Hon<sup>r</sup> who would be worthy of so | great a Trust, and acceptable to the Society; and that as soon as | his Worship had effected this his Intention, regular Notice should | be given to the several Lodges thereof. |

The Deputy Grand Master likewise acquainted the Brethren | that the Tickets were preparing for the Grand Feast, and that | as this was the proper time, for choosing Stewards for the said | Feast, he proposed that such as were willing to serve that Office | might advance to the Chair, and signify their Inclination by | signing their Names, as was done last
Year. |

Thereupon several Brethren came up to the Table & | signed their Names, but there being some Objections raised ags<sup>t</sup> | persons interested, and Disputes arising, the same was debated; and | it was proposed by the Deputy Grand Master, that such of those | Brethren as had served Stewards the last Grand Feast, and | were willing to continue in the said Post another Year might have | the preference. Whereupon

The Stewards observed to the Grand Master that it was very Inconvenient to have the Feast on S<sup>t</sup> John's day, by reason that | all the Nobility and persons of Distinction (or the greatest part | of them) would be out of Town and also that there was not time | sufficient for them to prepare things in so handsom a manner as | they would willingly do ; Moved that the Grand Lodge should | assemble on S<sup>t</sup> John's day to choose the Grand Master as usual, | but that the ffeast might be adjourned for a Month or six Weeks | after, as was done by the late Grand Master the Lord Paisley. |

The Grand Master approved of the Motion, and proposed it | to the Grand Lodge that the Grand Feast should be adjourned | for a Month or six Weeks after S<sup>t</sup> John's day for the reason before | mentioned, the day to be fixed by the Grand Master on S<sup>t</sup> John's | day which was agreed to Nemine con. |

Duke of Norfolk first Peer of | England (who was pleased to offer his Service to the Society) for that | Office. |

The Deputy Grand Master accordingly proposed His Grace | the Duke of Norfolk to be our Grand Master for the ensuing | Year, which was agreed to Nemine con: and his Grace's Health | was drank by the Stile of Grand Master elect with the | greatest Demonstrations of Joy imaginable. |

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Brethren that | he had received from the five Stewards who offered their Service at the | last Quarterly Communication a List of seven other Brethrens Names | who together with them are willing to serve the Office of Stewards at the | ensuing ffeast and their Healths were drank Jointly by the Name of | Stewards elect, |

The Deputy Grand Master recommended the general Charity | and Ordered the Lodges to be called over again and desired that the Master | or Wardens of every Lodge respectively would advance to the Chair as | their Names were called over and pay into the Treasurer's hands what | money they had collected on that Acco<sup>t</sup> pursuant to the Resolution of the last | Quarterly Communication.

The Lodge held at the Devil Tavern within Temple Bar being lately assembled by Leave of the Grand Master, delivered to the Deputy Grand Master a List of their Names and days of Meeting.

The Deputy Grand Master informed the Stewards that he had provided Tickets for the Grand Feast, and they should be delivered by the Secretary to them on Munday next, in Order to be sent by them to the Lodges, inserting Stationers Hall for the place of Entertainment which his Worship likewise signified to the Grand Lodge, and desired the several Masters and Wardens present, not to fail to make a proper Return of such Tickets as they cannot dispose of, on or before the 17th of January that the Stewards may the better know how many to provide for.

Some Brethren being desirous to hear the Letter read relating to the general Charity before mentioned, the Deputy Grand Master ordered it to be read.

After which the R<sup>t</sup> Honourable the Earl of Inchiquin second D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers Motion that the same should be considered at the next Quarterly Communication and proposed such as had anything to Offer upon that Subject should put the same in Writing and sign their Names in order to their being laid before the Committee which was agreed to.

A Petition of Henry Pritchard Joiner a Brother setting forth his Misfortunes and Poverty and praying Releife of the Grand Lodge, was presented and read being attested by the Master and Wardens of the Lodge held at the Queen's Head in Knaves Acre: Whereupon the Master and Wardens of the said Lodge, being asked their opinion concerning the said petition, said, that they had releived the said Pritchard in their Lodge, and had advised the Petitioner not to present it this Night.

Ordered

That the said Petition be redelivered to the said Master and Wardens to be kept by them till the general Charity be established upon a proper footing and they shall think fitt to recommend his Case again.

B<sup>r</sup> Tho<sup>s</sup> Batson proposed that for the future every Lodge of Masons, that shall be Constituted by the Grand Master or by his

The List of the regular Lodges were called over, and those present answered | to their Call. |

The Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication and also the Proceedings of the late Grand Feast-day were read. |

The Deputy Grand Master recommended the general Charity to the Grand Lodge, and at the same time delivered an Acco<sup>t</sup> of his Treasurership | to the present time whereby it appears that he had received on Acco<sup>t</sup> of the Charity £59 : 3 — and out of which he had disbursed £3 : 10 : 6 and | the Ballance remaining in his hands was £55 : 12 : 6 |

D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers seconded the Deputy Grand Master in recommending | the general Charity and made some proposals for the better Regulation | thereof, but severall Disputes arising thereupon, particularly concerning | the Establishment of the Committee : Brother Cowper moved that the | Original Report of the Committee for the Charity might be read, and | the same was read accordingly. |

After several Debates it was Resolved that the Committee of Charity | should stand as at first agreed to. |

D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers acquainted the Grand Lodge that the Directors of | the Infirmary at Westm<sup>r</sup> out of their regard to Masonry (several of them | being Masons) had offered to take Care of any poor Brother who may happen | to be disabled by broken Limbs &c. from following his Employment which | often happens amongst working Masons. |

Whereupon it was proposed that five Guineas be paid annually | to |

to the said Infirmary by the Treasurer, and the Question being put | It was carried in the affirmative Nemine contradicente. |

[143.] [a] 'St. Rochil in Sussex' is the Lodge which is said to have met on St. Rook's Hill, near Chichester, once every year (the Tuesday in Easter Week), and to have been Constituted in the Reign of Julius Cæsar. It was erased in 1754. The tradition is fully dealt with by Bro. W. H. Rylands, in his Notes on Sussex Masonry, in A.Q.U., xi., 170.

[Duke of Norfolk, G.M.]

21 April]

And it was further Ordered that when Application shall be made by any Brother to be admitted into the Infirmary the same shall be made to the Committee of the general Charity, for the time being, who may upon such Brother's producing a proper Certificate signed by the Master and Wardens of the Lodge to which he belongs; recommend such Brother to the principal Officer of the Infirmary that he may be received into their Care.

It was proposed as a Rule in all further Grand Lodges that no Brother shall be allowed to speak above once to one and the same matter unless to explain himself, that such Brother shall be standing and every one else sitting.

And the Question being put It was carried in the affirmative Nemine contradicente, and if in any Debate any Brother shall break this Order the Grand Master or Deputy Grand Master shall call such Brother to order.

And it was Ordered that the above Order be read at every Quarterly Communication immediately after the Minutes of the preceeding Quarterly Meeting.

Then the Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication were read. |

[a] D<sup>r</sup> Desaguliers stood up and (taking Notice of a printed Paper |
lately published and dispersed about the Town, and since inserted in | the News Papers, pretending to discover and reveal the Misteries of the | Craft of Masonry) recommended several things to the Consideration of |
[b] the Grand Lodge, particularly the Resolution of the last Quarterly Communication for preventing any false Brethren being admitted into regular Lodges and such as call themselves Honorary Masons.

The Deputy Grand Master seconded the Doctor and proposed several Rules to the Grand Lodge to be observed in their respective Lodges for their Security against all open and Secret Enemies to the Craft. |

Mount Coffee house charged M<sup>r</sup> Lily (who keeps the Rainbow Coffee house in York Buildings) with having made it his Business | to ridicule
Masonry publickly notwithstanding he lately received | the Honour of
[c] having a Lodge constituted at his house and he being | also a Mason. |

That the said M<sup>r</sup> Lily be summoned to appear at the next
Quarterly Communication to answer the said Charge and that | the said
M<sup>r</sup> Richard Hunton do likewise attend at the same time | to make good his Accusation. |

The Deputy Grand Master recommended the general Charity and having observed that the Committee of the said Charity | had not been

Grand Officers are generally out of Town, and there being | but three more Members of the Committee Vizt Major Harding M<sup>r</sup>. | Sorrel and
M<sup>r</sup>. Payne, whereof the Major is gone to live in Scot | :land, and M<sup>r</sup>. Sorrel for the most part in the Countrey, & consequently | a Quorum can seldom be had, for at least half the Year, and whereas | the chief end and Design of the said Charity (viz<sup>t</sup> the timely Releife | of poor and Distresed Brethren) is thereby greatly obstructed. He | therefore proposed that such a Number of Brethren, as the Grand | Lodge should Judge necessary, might be added to the above Members | of the Committee of Charity for the better Dispatch of Businefs | and the more immediate Releife of the Brotherhood who should stand | in need of their Afsistance. |

D<sup>r</sup>. Desagulier seconded the said Motion. |

After which several Propositions were made, and the matter was | considered and debated fully, and the following Question was at last | agreed to, and accordingly put Viz<sup>t</sup> |

That twelve Brethren shall be added to the aforesaid Committee of | seven for the Disposal of the General Charity agreeable to the Establish |
:ment and under such Limitations as are therein particularly laid | down :
Which twelve shall be all Masters of Lodges, and such only who | contribute to the said General Charity, who shall be summoned Quarterly | by the printed List of the Lodges, according to Seniority, the first twelve | to officiate for the next Quarter, commencing at Mich<sup>s</sup> the next twelve | for the succeeding Quarter and so on ; Every Master of a Lodge to take | the said Office in his Turn for one Quarter, and when the List has been | gone through to begin again and proceed in the manner prescribed. |

It was carried in the affirmative Nemine con |

It was also resolved that for the quicker Dispatch of Businefs five | of the above Members shall be deemed a Quorum of the said Committee | provided one of the five be a Grand Officer for the time being. |

Ordered.

[Duke of Norfolk, G.M.]

30 Black Lyon in Jocky ffields 3
31 Crown on Ludgate hill 1

The Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication were read. |

And after the general Healths were drank the Deputy | Grand Master proposed the Health of B<sup>r</sup> Cox Provincial Grand | Master of North America which was drank accordingly. |

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Lodge that his | Grace the Duke of Norfolk Grand Master had ordered £20 | to be paid into his hands as Treasurer of the General Charity which | he had received from
Robert Westby Esq<sup>r</sup> his Grace's Agent. |

[a] And further acquainted the Brethren that his Grace the | Duke of Norfolk our present Grand Master had not only been | so good as to order
£20 towards the general Charity But also had made | the Brethren a Present of a Sword of State, and a new Grand Lodge | Book to be used for the future at Grand Lodges and other Meetings | where the Grand Master shall be present. |

Then B<sup>r</sup> Moody Master of the Lodge at the Devil Tavern | within Temple Bar and Sword Cutler to their Majesty's Household | was Ordered by the Deputy Grand Master to produce the Sword of | State by him finished and the Brethren present acknowledged that it | was not only finely designed but executed in the best manner and | owned to be a courious peice of Workmanship. |

Then the Deputy Grand Master proposed that the health of | his Grace the Duke of Norfolk should be again drank with |

Thanks |
Thanks to his Grace for his most Noble Present of the Sword of | State which was accordingly done with the greatest Unanimity. |

It was also proposed that B<sup>r</sup> George Moody's Health | should be drank and told that he had finished the Sword of State | to the general Satisfaction of all present which was done accord : | : ingly and the Deputy
Geand Master recommended him to the | Brethren |

The Deputy Grand Master produced his Acco<sup>t</sup> as Treasurer | of the General Charity which was approved of and the Acco<sup>t</sup> past | by which it appears that there is a Ballance in his hands of | £72 : 11 : 0 and is as follows

And further acquainted the Grand Lodge that as there had | been so short a time between the last and present Quarterly Communi | cation
there had been no Occasion to summon the Committee of | Charity. |

B<sup>r</sup> Batson then proposed that the Health of the Deputy | Grand Master should be drank as Treasurer with Thanks, being | seconded by D<sup>r</sup>
Desagulier, it was unanimously agreed to and done | accordingly. |

The Lodge at the Bricklayers Arms in Barbican having | been [a]
Constituted since the last Quarterly Communication the Ma<sup>r</sup> | of that Lodge paid into the Treasurer's hands towards the general | Charity two Guineas for their Constitution according to a former | Order which with the above Ballance of £72 : 11 : 0 makes in | all £74 : 13 : 0. |

The Lodge held at the Red Lyon in Canterbury sent half | a [b]

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Lodge that as but five Brethren had offered themselves as Stewards for the ensuing ffeast at last Quarterly Communication when it was left to the Six Jun<sup>r</sup> Stewards who served last year to provide Stewards for the ensuing ffeast that twelve Brethren had accepted the Office, and delivered in a List of their Names Viz: |

James Chambers Esq <sup>r</sup>	M <sup>r</sup> John Haines
Doctor George Douglas	M <sup>r</sup> William Milward
Thomas Moor Esq <sup>r</sup>	M <sup>r</sup> Roger Lacy
John Atwood Esq <sup>r</sup>	M <sup>r</sup> Charles Trinquand

which being read he proposed their Healths as Stewards should be drank with Thanks which was done accordingly. |

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Grand Lodge that he had received a Letter from the Master of the Lodge at Bengall in the East Indies with a List of their Lodge and the Regulations thereof which being read were highly approved of and their Healths were drank.

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Lodge that in a Letter from Venice dated the 9th of December in answer to his Letter sent to the Grand Master; his Grace says that at this distance it is impossible for him to name a person to succeed him but that was he in England he would discourse the Earl of Sunderland or the Lord Portmore who (either of them) would certainly be very proper for that Office, and desires that he as his Deputy would do it for him. The Deputy Grand Master told the Brethren that he had done it accordingly, but that My Lord Sunderland excused himself, on Acco<sup>t</sup> of his being to go abroad, and that My Lord Portmore had declined accepting the Office: He therefore in regard that most of the Noblemen that are Free Masons are out of Town, and a Grand Master is not fixed upon: proposed that the Feast might be put off till he should have Leave from some Person of Quality to nominate him to succeed the Duke of Norfolk as Grand Master. |

Then it was moved that the Feast be put off till a more convenient time |
time of which Notice shall be given by the Secretary to the Ma<sup>rs</sup> |
and Wardens of all regual Lodges instead of giving Notice in | the Publick
News Papers. |

And the puting off the Feast till a more convenient time |
was agreed to Nemine con. |

D<sup>r</sup> Douglas observed that Several Brethren that are not | of any regular Lodge and Yet are good and faithful Brethren can | have no
Notice without publick advertisement. |

That this affair be left to the Direction of the Stewards |

The Deputy Grand Master then ordered.

That all the Lodges do bring in Lists of their regular Members | at the next Quarterly Communication in order that they may be | entred
in a Book prepared for that purpose. |

Then the Master and Wardens of the Lodge at the Crown | and Sceptres in S<sup>t</sup>. Martin's Lane were called up and the Deputy | Grand Master told them, he was so ill he could not attend at the time | he had appointed to visite them, and that he was sorry to find there | was any Likelyhood that so numerous and so regular a Lodge | should make a Schism by appointing a Feast at their own Lodge | on the day appointed for the Grand Feast, and not to come to the Grand | Feast, he hoped they would forget and forgive any Injury supposed | to be given by any Brother and recommended Brotherly Love to 'm. |

B. Charles Alexander Junior Warden of the | Crown and Sceptres Lodge acquainted the Grand Lodge that the | Master of that Lodge who had subscribed his Name as a | Steward had taken amifs somewhat said by B<sup>r</sup>. Chambers, the | Lodge resented it and had agreed to dine at their own Lodge. |

B<sup>r</sup> Horn the Master of the said Lodge complained | of B<sup>r</sup> Chamber's words, being that the Stewards would not have | such a Fellow amongst them. |

And after a long debate. |

It was carried that the Matter in Dispute be referred to | the Committee of Charity and that they do examine the same | and make a Report thereof to the Grand Lodge. |

It was proposed that no Lodge should order a Dinner on the | Grand feast day and agreed to Nemine con |

That all Matter of Complaint be laid before the Committee and | that B<sup>r</sup> Horn Master of the Lodge and B<sup>r</sup> Green Master of the House | at the Crown and Sceptres do appear on behalf of the Lodge and B<sup>r</sup> Chambers and B<sup>r</sup> King on behalf of the Stewards and that the | Secretary do give Notice to the Members of the Committee of Charity | to meet and decide this affair before the Grand Feast. |

The Several Healths were drank as usual and all Businefs being | over the Deputy Grand Master closed the Lodge. |

them that he had the Hon<sup>r</sup> to nominate the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> The Lord | Lovell to the Office of Grand Master for the Year ensuing | in the Name of His Grace The Duke of Norfolk our present | Grand Master, who was pleased to accept the same, and his Lordship | (being present) was unanimously approved and his Lordship's Health | was proposed and drank accordingly as Grand Master Elect with a | general Applause. |

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Lodge that he had | consulted the Grand Master Elect, and his Grace the Duke of Richmond | about fixing the day for the Grand ffeast: Declared that the said Grand | ffeast should be held the 27th Instant, the time when his Grace the Duke | of Norfolk our present Grand Master should arrive in England | not being known. |

His Grace the Duke of Richmond's Health was proposed and | drank and after the R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Lord Colerane's. |

The Deputy Grand Master proposed to the Grand Lodge that | all such Brethren who had Coaches or Chariots should attend the Grand | Master Elect at his House in Great Rufsell Street on Saturday the 27th | Instant before 12 o' the Clock in order to proceed with his Lordship to | Mercers Hall in Cheapside to dine. |

D<sup>r</sup> Desagulier taking Notice of some Irregularities in wear: | ing the Marks of Distinction which have been allowed by former | Grand Lodges.

Proposed.

That none but the Grand Master, his Deputy and Wardens | shall wear their Jewels in Gold or Gilt pendant to blue Ribbons | about their Necks and white Leather Aprons lined with blue Silk. |

[167]

[a]It seems evident that the Resolution of 24th June, 1727, had not been universally accepted. Even so late as 1739 it was claimed by the Lodge of Antiquity that Green was "the Ancient Custom of the Lodge." It is well to note that the Apron and Collar represented respectively Rank and Office, the jewel indicating the particular Office held by the wearer. Past Officers had no jewels, and therefore had no use for Collars. Past Officers and Stewards of Grand Lodge were indicated by the colour of the linings of their Aprons, while Past Masters and Past Wardens of private Lodges evidently reverted to the plain unlined Aprons of ordinary Members. Green was adopted later (1789-1795) by the Country Stewards' Lodge. For a reference to a Yellow Apron ordered for the Sword Bearer see A.Q.C., xi., 36. See also papers by Bro. W. H. Rylands on The Masonic Apron, in A.Q.C., v., 172; Bro. Fred. J. W. Crowe on Colours in Freemasonry, in A.Q.C., xvii., 3; and Dr. W. J. Chetwode Crawley on Masonic Blue, in A.Q.C., xxiii., 309.

[Duke of Norfolk, G.M.]

17 Mar.]

That all those who have served any of the three Grand Offices | shall wear the like Aprons lined with blue Silk in all Lodges and | assemblies of Masons when they appear clothed. |

That those Brethren that are Stewards shall wear their aprons | lined with red Silk and their proper Jewels pendant to red Ribbons. |

That all those who have served the Office of Steward be at | Liberty to wear Aprons lined with red Silk and not otherwise. |

That all Masters and Wardens of Lodges may wear their | Aprons lined with White Silk and their respective Jewels with plain | White Ribbons but of no other Colour whatsoever. |

The Deputy Grand Master accordingly put the Question whether | the above Regulation should be agreed to. |

[168] And it was carried in the affirmative Nemine con |

Minute Book No. 2.

FIRST PART.

27th MARCH, 1731, to 12th DECEMBER, 1739.

The second Minute Book of Grand Lodge is the one presented to the Society by the Duke of Norfolk, and is fairly described by Anderson (Constitutions, 1738, p. 127,) as follows :—

A Large Folio Book of the finest Writing Paper for the Records of the Grand Lodge, most richly bound in Turkey and gilded, and on the Frontispiece in Vellum, the Arms of Norfolk amply display'd with a Latin Inscription of his noble Titles.

Entick (Constitutions, 1756, p. 209,) repeats this description, and correctly adds :—

And at the end the Arms of Masonry, likewise amply display'd and illuminated.

A facsimile of the Arms of the Duke of Norfolk is given as Frontispiece to this present Volume. I may mention that a piece of the marbled end-paper has been cut from the centre of the front inside cover of Minute Book No. 2, another piece of similar paper having been pasted over the space. Probably a book-plate was removed at the time the Book was presented. I refer to this because the extra thickness of paper has pressed through and slightly damaged the illuminated Coat of Arms.

It will be convenient to bring this Volume to a close at the end of the year 1739, when a general 'closing-up' of the Lodges took place, necessitating a fresh enumeration early in 1740.

The list from 1729 to 1739 contained 189 numbers, and as No. 189 of 1739 became No. 178 in 1840, it might be assumed that only eleven Lodges had gone out of existence during the eleven years. This however is not correct. Gaps caused by lapsed Lodges had been filled by creations of later date, and I believe that this was done to a greater extent than has hitherto been realized. We know that the Stewards' Lodge took No. 117 which had been held by a Lodge at the King's Arms, Strand, and that to the Gibraltar Lodge was assigned No. 51 which had belonged to a lapsed Lodge at the Green Lettice, Holborn. So too No. 79 was first given to a Lodge at Highgate, and later to another at the Two Angels and Crown, St. Martin's Lane; while No. 178 was used in 1738 for a Lodge at Cameron's Coffee House, St. James's, and for one at the Flowerpot, Bishopsgate, in the following year.

Note may also be taken of the Lodge said to have been formed at Edgware in 1722, which appears in the Engraved List of 1729 as No. 8. In the MS. List of 1730 the eighth place is occupied by a Lodge at the Devil Tavern, Temple Bar, referred to in the Minutes of 27th December, 1729, as "lately assembled by leave of the Grand Master." This seems to shew that the Lodge at the Devil Tavern was a new creation, and a comparison of the Lists of Members in 1723 and 1730 entirely supports this view.

I may also point to No. 26 at the Old Devil, Temple Bar, in 1724, which paid for Constitution in 1739 at the Key and Garter, Pall Mall. That these are two distinct Lodges is made quite clear by Anderson in his Constitutions of 1738, where (pp. 184-190) he gives a list of Lodges "in and about London and Westminster." No. 26 at the Old Devil is not mentioned by him. It would have come between his No. 23 and No. 24, but evidently it was not in existence. On the other hand, the last Lodge in his List is the Key and Garter, Pall Mall, one of three which "have petitioned to be Constituted." It should have been entered as No. 179, but was put by the Engraver in the vacant No. 26.

One other instance I may mention, as it shews the re-issue of a lapsed number to an older Lodge instead of to one more recently formed. The Lodge at the Masons' (or Bricklayers') Arms, Fulham, was noted in the 1725 Lists, but was subsequently ignored until in 1735 it moved to the White Lion, Aldersgate Street. It was then entered as No. 47 in the place of a Lodge which had been formed in 1727 at the Three Crowns, Stoke Newington. Its place in the List was therefore lower than that to which it was entitled, while in all the other cases I have referred to the new Lodges were placed above their Seniors.

I look upon this 'filling-up,' not as a deliberate action on the part of Grand Lodge, but rather as a natural result of the system adopted of issuing Lists printed from Engraved plates. When a Lodge went out of existence, the sign of the House at which it had met would be rubbed off the plate, and another sign would be engraved representing a Lodge which had just come on the List. In all cases the Engraver would not even take the trouble to alter the date of Constitution, and so these Lodges not only received numbers to which they were not entitled, but their ages appeared as those of the Lodges which they replaced. This system of filling up gaps in the list by later creations was adopted by the Grand Lodge of the Antients, and is still practised by the Grand Lodge of Ireland, but it was abandoned by the Moderns in favour of a periodical 'closing-up' of the entire list.

I look with some suspicion at Lodges which are said to have moved to Houses right at the other end of the Town. In those days, Brethren living say in Whitechapel would have found it very inconvenient to attend their Lodges once or twice a week at Westminster, and I am at present inclined to think that in many instance such 'removals' really indicate the substitution of new Lodges for those that had gone out of existence. Some allowance may perhaps be made for the attachment of Lodges to their Landlords, and a desire to follow a good man to his new home; or to put it in another way, the desire of a Landlord to retain the custom of the Lodge of which in all probability he was Treasurer; but even admitting this personal influence I feel that many of the so-called removals can only be accounted for in the manner I suggest. Much useful information on this point should be obtained by a careful collation of the early Engraved lists preserved at Freemasons' Hall, many of which are marked with the periodical attendances of members at Grand Lodge, and the amounts paid for charity.

I am also of the opinion that in some instances, what appear to be removals are merely different descriptions of the same Taverns ; and that in other cases Lodges had actually removed some time before the fact is noted in the Minutes. As an example of the former, I may point to No. 57 described on 30th June, 1739, as of the Falstaff's Head, Charing Cross, a tavern which Bro. Lane was able to indentify as the Earl Cardigan (or Cardigan's Head), Charing Cross ; and an illustration of the second suggestion may be found in connexion with No. 71 which in Anderson's Constitutions of 1738 (p. 187) is shewn to have been then meeting at the Globe Tavern, Old Jewry, a fact not revealed by the Minutes until March, 1740.

In regard to the words added by Anderson in the List of Grand Officers at the end of Minute Book No. 1, I need only point out that in the list preserved by the Lodge of Antiquity, there is no mention of his Wardenship, and that it is not until the 3rd December, 1731 (Book No. 2) that we find him actually described in the Minutes as "formerly Grand Warden." The words which have been erased after his name in the Minutes of 24th June, 1723, are quite illegible in the original manuscript, but the camera brings them out distinctly as "who officiated for Mr. William Hawkins."

It may be useful to note Anderson's Masonic Record as it is revealed in the Minute Books and in his Constitutions.

- 1721. Sepr. 29. Grand Lodge ordered Anderson to 'digest' the old Gothic Constitutions. (Constitutions, 1738, p. 113.)
- 1721. Decr. 27. Committee appointed to examine his Manuscript. (ibid, p. 114.)
- 1722. March 25. Committee reported that they had perused the Manuscript. (ibid, p. 114.)
- 1723. Jany. 17. Anderson appointed Grand Warden in the place of William Hawkins. At this meeting he produced his Book of Constutions in print. (ibid, p. 115.)
- 1723. February. Master of Lodge No. xvii. not identified. (Constitutions, 1723, p. 74.)
- 1723. April 25. "Lodges called over by G. Warden Anderson." (Constitutions 1738, p. 115.)
- 1723. June 24. Present at Grand Lodge, and acted as Grand Warden. There is an erasure after his name. At this meeting the approbation of his Book seems to be called in question. (G. L. Minutes.)
- 1723. November. Member of Lodge at the Horn, Westminster. (MS. List of 1723.)
- 1725. November. Member of the Lodges at the Horn, Westminster, and at Solomon's Temple, Hemming's Row. (MS. List of 1725.)

1730. August 28. Present at Grand Lodge. Described as "The Reverend Mr. James Anderson." Acted as Grand Warden. (G.L. Minutes.)

1738. Jany. 25. Announced that the New Edition was ready for the press; and proposed a new regulation in regard to removal of Lodges. (G.L. Minutes.)
1738. April 6. Present at Grand Lodge. (G.L. Minutes.)

Anderson died on 28th May, 1739. It will be noticed that in this record he is not mentioned before September, 1721; that there is a gap in his attendances at Grand Lodge from June, 1723, to August, 1730; and that altogether he only appears to have attended 18 or 19 times in as many years. It must, however, be remembered that Past Wardens of Grand Lodge held no rank therein as such before May, 1727.

I have found it quite impracticable to print line for line and page for page with the Original Minutes. Ends of lines are therefore marked by thin vertical strokes, and the ends of pages by similar heavy strokes. In some cases the Minute Books have a contemporary paging in ink, but for the most part they have within comparatively recent years been paged or folioed in pencil. Such pagination is noted in the print by the figures in square brackets in the margins.

The marginal dates, and names of Grand Masters, at the head of each printed page are added for convenient reference. The letters in square brackets in all cases refer to foot notes.

In the Index I have thought it unnecessary to insert against each brother's name the lodge of which he was a member. It must therefore be understood that all references from pages 3 to 47, and 148 to 195 inclusive, are to the three Lists of Lodges, while pages 196 to 200 contain the names of the Grand Officers.

The erratic spelling of proper names by the scribes makes the task of identifying individuals very difficult. In some instances the varying spellings happen to come in the Index almost in succession, (e.g. Playmert, Plumert, Pluymert, Plymert), and are therefore easily recognized. In other cases I have made cross references (e.g. Middelton, Myddleton), which I hope may be of some assistance to those who desire to trace the careers of our ancient brethren.

By far the greater part of the Minutes contained in this present Volume are in the handwriting of William Reid, who was appointed Secretary on 27th December, 1727. To him we may ascribe the MS. List of 1730, the Minutes of 24th June, 1723, and those from 19th December, 1727, onwards down to and including the Meeting of 13th April, 1737. He was evidently a professional scribe, as also were apparently the writers of the MS. Lists of 1723 and 1725, the intervening Minutes from November, 1723, to October, 1727, and those of later date than 13th April, 1737. The first Secretary, William Cowper, evidently wrote nothing in the books. A facsimile of his handwriting is given from the inscription in the Woodford MS. in the Library of this Lodge. And at present I have not found anything to shew that John Revis, the third Secretary, actually wrote the Minutes after his appointment. There is evidence that in some instances they were copied from notes probably made by the Secretary himself.

It has been a matter of great regret to me that it was not possible to complete this Volume during the lifetime of Bro. Henry Sadler, who took a very keen interest in its progress. I gratefully acknowledge his kind help on many points; while I am equally indebted to Bros. W. H. Rylands, Dr. W. J. Chetwode Crawley, W. Wonnacott, and Dr. W. Hammond, the present Librarian of Grand Lodge, for much valuable advice and assistance.

[Lord Lovell, G.M.]

14 May]

The Deputy Grand Master put the Question whether the Treasurer's Account was agreed to and should be accordingly passed. It was carried in the affirmative. Nemine con.

Several Motions were made in relation to the general Charity, and it being signified by the Deputy Grand Master that he thought the Power of the Committee of the said Charity, was too much circumscribed by the small number of Persons who were admitted Members of the said Committee whereby the Necessity, or the Merit of such poor Brethren as should be recommended as Objects of the said Charity, were seldom truly known. He therefore proposed that any person or persons who had served the Office of Grand Master, or Deputy Grand Master might be added to the said Committee of Charity. The same being seconded and the Question put It was agreed that all those who have been Grand Masters or Deputy Grand Masters shall be always declared Members of the Committee of Charity.

It was also moved that the said Committee shall have power to give £5 - - to any poor Brother who shall be regularly recommended and no more.

The Question being put it passed in the affirmative.

It was observed that the Minutes of the Quarterly Communication had not been delivered at the several Lodges in due time, the writing them taking up so much of the Secretary's time, and printing them being thought inconvenient, Several things were offered to the Consideration of the Grand Lodge thereupon, in order to remedy those Inconveniences for the future as also to lessen the Expence to the Grand Master.

Brother Pine proposed that the Minutes of each Quarterly Communication should for the future be etched by him who is a Mason and very well known to the Grand Lodge and might be trusted with anything relating to the Craft.

Brother |

Brother Pine being called up, and asked how long he should be about such a thing. He said he would undertake to etch the Plate and have them printed off in three days.

[a]The only copy of Pine's Etched Minutes known to exist is in the possession of the Anchor and Hope Lodge, No. 37, Bolton, Lancashire. The Minutes are of the Meeting of 21st November, 1732. A facsimile was published in 1907 under the supervision of Bro. F. W. Broadbent, P.M. and Secretary of the Lodge, with facsimiles of letters addressed to the Lodge by William Reid, Grand Secretary, on 2nd December, 1732, and 20th January, 1733.

ffifteen pounds should be sufficient effectually to discharge | him from his Confinement and pay his Lodging and ffees, | They were directed to Ifsue their Order to the Treasurer for | the payment thereof. |

The Petition of Henry Pritchard (a regular Mason | upwards of fforty Years) was also read, setting forth his Poverty, | Age, Blindness,

[a] This is Anderson's first appearance as Dr. One might almost consider it possible that he himself dictated the entry, which at once brings to mind "James Anderson, A.M. The Author of this Book" in his 1723 Constitutions, p. 74. In the 1738 Constitutions Anderson describes himself as D.D., but it will be noticed that after 1736 he appears in the Minutes as A.M. only.

[b] The Minutes of 15th December, 1730, describe Pritchard as "Thirty years a Mason." It is now said that he had been "a regular Mason upwards of Forty years." Whichever statement be accepted it seems clear that he had been admitted some time before the formation of Grand Lodge.

and other Misfortunes, and that notwithstanding being, his having formerly received £3. 0. 0 out of the general Charity: Yet that by reason of his Blindness and other Infirmities, he was incapable of helping himself; B<sup>r</sup> Sharp and Several other Worthy Brethren giving him a good Character.

24 June]

The Grand Lodge considering B<sup>r</sup> Pritchard's Condition in Consideration thereof were pleased to Order.

That the Treasurer of the general Charity do pay to B<sup>r</sup> Henry Pritchard the sum of five pounds towards his further Releife, and desired that D<sup>r</sup> Desagulier would be pleased to see the same applyed in the best manner for that purpose.

Then the Petition of B<sup>r</sup> William Kemble was read, but he not appearing, nor satisfaction given to the Grand Lodge, how long he had been made a regular Mason the same was dismissed.

Then the Grand Master and his General Officers signed signed a Deputation for our R<sup>d</sup> Worshipful Brother John Phillips Esq<sup>r</sup> to be Grand Master of free and accepted Masons within the Empires of Rufsia and Germany, and Dominions and Territories thereunto belong being, and his Health was drank wishing Prosperity to the Craft in those parts.

A Petition was presented and signed by several Brethren praying that they may be admitted into the Grand Lodge, and Constituted into a regular Lodge at the three Kings in Crispian Street Spittle Fields, after some Debate, Several Brethren present vouching that they were regular Masons, they were admitted, and the Grand Master declared, that he or his Deputy would constitute them accordingly and signed their Petition for that purpose.

Then the Lodges were called over a Second time, and those underwritten paid in their Charity Viz:

[a] Bro. Lane (Masonic Records, p. 47) identifies the Three Kings, Crispian Street, Spitalfields, as No. 37 in the Engraved List of 1729, which had previously met at the Rummer, Henrietta Street, Covent Garden; Cross Keys, Henrietta Street; and Three Tuns, Wood Street; the last attendance from the Three Tuns having been on 15th December, 1730. I have not yet found any evidence to support this conclusion. On the face of it the Lodge at Spitalfields appears to be a new Constitution, after the lapse of old No. 37.

The other contributing Lodges are Nos. 4, 11, 13, 23, 68, 69, 71, and 76.

B<sup>r</sup> Anderson made a Motion that as B<sup>r</sup> North | Stainer's case was referred from the Committee of Charity | to the Grand Lodge, he hoped they would please to take the | same into their Consideration. |

B<sup>r</sup> Prude thereupon reported that all his Creditors (except | two) had consented to compound their Debts, but that, what | was owing for his Lodging (which was after the rate of |  $\frac{8}{4}$  p Week) was now encreased from £5 to above £10 and | therefore moved that his Lodgings might be discharged and | then he believed he might make Shift to get a Livelyhood | within the Rules of the Fleet Prison where he is now confined. |

It was thereupon observed by the Senior Grand Warden | that as the Intention of the Grand Lodge when they voted | him £15 was designed to discharge his Debts and set him | entirely at Liberty, and unless that could be done with the sum | so granted the said £15 could not regularly be paid on any | other Account. |

S<sup>r</sup> William Keith took Notice that he thought the | Grand Lodge was not to think of paying Debts with the | Charity Money; for that there would be no end of, nor would | our Stock afford it, But if we could by such a Contribution as | should be adjudged proper, aid and assist our poor Brethren | in distrefs by way of subsistance by Weekly Payments or | otherwise that would in his Opinion be the best Method of | bestowing the said Charity. |

[Lord Lovell, G.M.]

[31] B<sup>r</sup> Blackerby spoke to the same purpose adding that | as what was first proposed by Brother Stainer and those | Brethren who appeared in his behalf; Viz<sup>t</sup> the procuring | a full Discharge from his Creditors in order to set him at | Liberty was not perfected the Grand Lodge could not take | notice |
notice of the affair at this time. |

None of these Motions being seconded : there was no | Question put : But the matter left undetermined. |

[32] All Businefs being over the General Healths were drank | and the Lodge closed. |

The Minutes of the Committee for the general Charity | at their two last Meetings were also read. |

The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Grand Lodge | with the State of B<sup>r</sup>: North Stainer's Case, and Brother | Blackerby acquainted them that the Grand Lodge having | Ordered him £15 . . in case the said Sum would effectually | relieve him, and entirely set him free. The Grand Lodge thought proper to postpone the Dispos: | :al of the ten pounds to B<sup>r</sup>: North Stainer to another | Meeting. |

None of the newly constituted Lodges are now in existence.

It was probably about this time that one Wheeler was Landlord of the One Tun, Noble Street. A Song composed by a Member of the Lodge held at that house first appeared in print in William Smith's Pocket Companion, London, 1735. The first line runs thus:—

“ As I at Wheeler's Lodge one Night.”

[a] Here we have a more precise statement than in the case of Henry Pritchard, and there does not appear to be any reason to doubt that Edward Hall was made a Mason in 1696. The Duke of Richmond at that time was the 1st Duke (1672-1723), the brother who attended to support the petition being his son the 2nd Duke, Grand Master in 1724-5. See Notes on Sussex Masonry, by Bro. W. H.

But some Brethren observing that B<sup>r</sup> Lewis was Tyler | to several Lodges, and that if the Grand Lodge should | Strictly pursue their Resentment it might deprive him of the | best part of his Subsistence. |

The Deputy Grand Master proposed it to the Stewards; | That as we are a friendly Society, and far from doing a hard | thing by any Brother, but rather, always willing and ready to | Serve him, if B<sup>r</sup> Lewis would publickly ask pardon of the | Stewards in the Grand Lodge, that they would forgive him. |

Whereupon B<sup>r</sup> Smyth Junior Grand Warden, | and | and one of the Stewards, declared, that the Stewards would be | Satisfyed if B<sup>r</sup> Lewis would make such Accknowledgement, | and promise, to behave in a more carefull and decent manner for | the future. |

Upon which B<sup>r</sup> Lewis did publickly ask pardon of the | Stewards, and the Grand Lodge; acknowledging his great Neglect | and insolent Behavior; and faithfully promising for the future | to take more Care, and to behave decently. |

The Deputy Grand Master taking Notice that several | Brethren, have of late taken the Liberty to apply themselves to | Several Noblemen, and other Persons of Quality and Distinction, | in a private manner, expecting (as they are brethren) to be relieved | by private Charity, notwithstanding there is a Committee of Charity, | regularly appointed to dispose of the Money collected at our | Quarterly Communications and otherwise, to such Brethren | as are intituled to the same; And that it must be very irksome | to such Noblemen, and others to be troubled and teized by such | private Applications, and may be the Occasion of Peoples | coming into this Ancient and Honourable Society, merely for | the hopes of what they can get, and by such clandestine Methods | procure the Charity of Masons to themselves before they are | intituled thereto, it being a Standing Rule that no Brother | whatsoever shall be intituled to any enlarged: Therefore moved that the Grand Committee for Disposal of | the General Charity; shall hereafter consist of all those Noble-men and | others, who have been Grand Officers, and of twenty Masters of Lodges | who have paid in their Charity within twelve Months preceeding such |

Committee in their Rotation, which was agreed to Nemine con. |

The Junior Grand Warden likewise observed that the Number of | Lodges are so very much encreased that in his Opinion some Restraint |
ought to be put upon making any more unlesfs such Lodge to be hereafter |
Constituted, should pay to the General Charity five Guineas; But it | being very late the further Consideration of this Affair was deferred | to the next Grand Lodge. |

The matter of Complaint against B<sup>r</sup> Calcot by the late Stewards | coming on (after some Debate) the Grand Lodge seemed to be of | Opinion that B<sup>r</sup> Calcot had highly reflected on the Stewards of | the last Feast, in Merchant Taylors hall, which ought not to be | done by any Brother more especially as the Gentlemen who serv'd | Stewards at the last Grand Feast had conducted everything to the |

It is curious that the Lodge at Bath is entered in the position which should have been occupied by No. 28, which had met at the Queen's Head, Cheap Street, Bath, in 1724. It is known that the Lodge at the White Bear, Stall Street, Bath
(the present Royal Cumberland, No. 41) had been meeting in 1732, and probably earlier, though it did not pay for its Constitution until this meeting. This entry seems to suggest that the two Lodges are really one.

No. 2, the second of the Four Old Lodges (originally meeting at the Crown in Parker's Lane), appears here for the last time.

The Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication were read and agreed to |

The Dep<sup>y</sup> Grand Master acquainted the Grand Lodge, with the Occasion | of the Grand-Feast's being put off, so late this Year, and at the same time recom: | :mended to the several Members present, that they would take out their Tickets for | the Grand-Feast in due time, which is appointed to be on Thursday the seventh | day of June next, at Mercer's Hall in Cheapside. So as the Stewards who | are to conduct the same may know what Provision to make for the Company. |

[50] A Dispute arising between the Master, Wardens, and some of the Brethren | of the Lodge held at the Coach and Horses in Maddox-Street in relation to | the removal of the said Lodge, the same was referred (Nemine contradicente) | to the next Committee for Disposal of the General-Charity for their Deter: | mination. | [a]

Nathaniel Blackerby Esq<sup>t</sup> Treasurer of the General-Charity delivered | in his Acco<sup>t</sup> of Receipts and Disbursements since the last Quarterly | Communication, which was read accordingly; and by which it appears that | there is a Balance in his hands of £83:7:0. The several Vouchers for | the Disbursements were also given in to the Secretary, and the same were | approved of, and pafs'd by the Grand Lodge as usual. |

Then the Lodges were call'd over a Second time and those following | paid in their Charity Viz: |

King's Arms in St Pauls Church Yard	..	10	6	[b]
Bull and Gate in Holbourn	1	1	..
Horn Tavern in Westminster	3	3	..
Devil Tavern within Temple Bar	1	1	..

[a]This Lodge (the present British Lodge, No. 8) had removed to the Braund's Head, New Bond Street.

[b]Of these contributing Lodges, the Antwerp Tavern is No. 92, removed from the King's Arms, Ludgate Hill. No. 107, at Dale's Coffee House, surrendered its warrant in 1742, when it joined the present Old King's Arms Lodge, No. 28. The Crown and Mitre (or Rummer and Mitre), Labour-in-Vain Hill, Old Fish Street, is the present Strong Man Lodge, No. 45. No. 111, at the Theatre Tavern, Goodman's Fields, is said to have been working in 1732. It was discontinued in 1734, and revived in 1736. For a short time it met at Snaresbrook. It finally lapsed about 1760. The King's Arms, Seven Dials, and the Ship, St. Mary Axe, both died about 1775; while the Three Lions, at Salisbury, was finally erased in 1801.

The Dep<sup>y</sup> Grand Master recommended the Petition of B<sup>r</sup> Lillingston | to the Consideration to the Consideration of the Grand-Lodge which being attested | by the Dukes of Mountague and Richmond : And it was proposed that five | Guineas should be given him towards relieving him, under his unhappy Circumstances. |

The Question being put it was carried in the affirmative. |

Ordered |

That Nathaniel Blackerby Esq<sup>r</sup> Treasurer pay the said five Guineas | into the hands of D<sup>r</sup> Desagulier for the use of B<sup>r</sup> Lillingston to be given him | in the following manner ; one Guinea immediately and the remaining four Guineas | at 7<sup>s</sup> p Week. |

The Petition of B<sup>r</sup> Perkins who has been blind these five years was also | read |

That the Treasurer do also pay five pounds to B<sup>r</sup> John Hoyles for the use | of B<sup>r</sup> Perkins, and also five pounds more to him as the next Succeeding Com: | mittee of Charity Shall direct. |

[52] The Deputy Grand Master acquainted the Grand-Lodge that some Disputes | having arisen in relation to the Expences of some, preceeding Grand Masters, and | therefore | therefore proposed that the Consideration of that affair should be referred to the | Consideration of the next Quarterly Communication, which was agreed to. |

The D.G.M. observed that those that had been Grand Officers | were mostly Persons of the first Quality and Distinction, and all of | them Ancient Members of this Hon<sup>ble</sup> Fraternity, and that in regard | more likely to be capable of knowing the Nature of the Proceedings | of such Committees, and that their Numbers at present can be nothing | in Comparison to the Masters of Lodges, and that in all Committees | of Charity hitherto held, very few Old Grand Officers have appeared | and that it will be time enough to move for any such Restraint | when it shall be found convenient |

Upon which the Motion was dropt |

Then the Dep<sup>y</sup> Grand Master opened to the Lodge the Affairs | [a]
of Planting the new Colony in Georgia in America, and having | sent an Account in Print of the Nature of such Plantation to all | the Lodges, and informed the Grand Lodge That the Trustees had | to Nathaniel Blackerby Esq<sup>r</sup> and to himself Commifsions under | their Common-Seal to collect the
Charity of this Society towards | enabling the Trustees to send distrefsed
Brethren to Georgia where | they may be comfortably provided for. |

Proposed that it be streniously recomended by the Masters & |

Holland, M.P.; William Sloper, M.P.; Sir Francis Eyles, M.P.; John Laroche, M.P.; James Vernon, Commissioner of Excise; William Beletha; John Burton, D.D.; Richard Bundy, D.D.; Arthur Blaford; Samuel Smith; Adam Anderson; and Captain Thomas Coram. Lord Percival was 2nd Earl of Egmont in Ireland, and was subsequently created a Peer of Great Britain as Baron Lovel. He was the first president of the Georgia Trustees. General James Edward Oglethorpe was the pioneer of the movement. Adam Anderson was no doubt the brother of James Anderson. Thomas Coram may be identified as the philanthropist who established the Foundling Hospital.

A Lodge in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, which did not come on the Roll of Grand Lodge, is stated (in the Newcastle Courant of 30th December, 1732) to have "ordered a considerable sum of money to be distributed among the poor families sent to Georgia."

[Earl of Strathmore, G.M.]

[1733
13 Dec.]

The Dep<sup>y</sup> Grand Master and B<sup>e</sup> Blackerby Treasurer informed the Grand Lodge that they would wait upon the Noblemen, and others Persons of Distinction, who are Members of this Society; for their Contribution to the charity of Georgia.

The Minutes of the last two Committees of Charity were read.

And then B<sup>e</sup> Blackerby Treasurer of the General Charity produced his Acco<sup>t</sup> of Money paid into his hands, and Vouchers for what he had laid out by Order of the Grand Lodge and Committee of Charity, By which there appers to be a Ballance in his hands of £85 : 14 : 0

Braund's head in New Bond-Street	1	7	..
One Tun in Noble Street	..	10	6
King's Arms in New Bond Street	1	1	..

The Deputy G.Master paid in two Guineas forgot last Year	2	2	..
	£	15	4 : 6
Together with the above Ballance in Treasurer's hands of	..	85	14 : 0
Total	£	100	18 : 6

[60]

[a]The Swan and Rummer, Finch Lane, is not noted in the List of attendances. It is No. 39 in the Engraved List of 1729.

[b]And apparently the Scribe also omitted to include the 10/- in his additions, which should be £15.14.6 and £101.8.6 respectively.

[Earl of Strathmore, G.M.]

13 Dec.]

Then the Treasurer's Health was drank and Thanks of the Grand Lodge for the Care he has taken in discharge of his Office.

The Healths of B<sup>r</sup> Winter and the Brethren in East India were drank with Thanks. for their handsom Present.

Complaint being made by several Masters of Lodges that the Minutes and Proceedings of Quarterly Commnications and Grand Lodges had not been sent to their respective Lodges as usual to the great Discouragement to Masonry in general, but especially to the Countrey Lodges.

The Dep<sup>t</sup> Grand Master observed that the Number of Lodges being so much increased That the Expence of sending the Minutes to each particular Lodge is become a Charge too burthensom for any Grand Master Therefore Proposed.

That the Consideration of that matter should be referred to the next Committee of Charity <sup>as</sup> Also to ascertain the Charge of every Grand Ma<sup>r</sup> for the future, who are to consider thereof and report their Opinion therein at the next Quarterly Communication.

Agreed Nemine con

The Grand Master recommended to the Brethren B<sup>r</sup> Theobald's Play, and desired that they would all come clothed

[c]

[a]Evidently this was the Arrack which was made into Punch and distributed among the Brethren on 31st March, 1735, Grand Lodge being afterwards closed "with an uncommon appearance of Harmony."

[b]We see from this statement how the ordinary expenses of the Society were met. There was at the time no fund for General Purposes, all contributions from the Lodges being devoted to the Fund of Charity. The Minutes of 24th February, 1735, contain the resolution that in future the Grand Master's liability for Secretarial charges should be limited to £31-10/- for the year.

[c]Lewis Theobald (1688-1744), playwright and Shakesperian Critic. The publication of his pamphlet Shakespeare Restored, or specimens of blunders committed and unamended in Pope's edition of this poet, drew a retaliation from Pope, who made him the original hero of the Dunciad. Theobald's play, "Apollo and Daphne," was running at Covent Garden about this time, being subsequently transferred to the Haymarket. In some advertisements it is styled "A Dramatic entertainment of Dancing," and in others "A grotesque Pantomime." His edition of Shakespeare, published in 1733, is generally considered to be the best work of the early modern school.

The Lodges being called over as above, The R<sup>t</sup> Worshipful the Grand | Master, make a handsom Speech to the Grand Lodge, afsuring them of his good | Will to the Craft, and of his Intentions of doing all the Services in his power to | Masons and Masonry, excused his not having been able to call them together before, on | Account of the more than ordinary Businefs of the Year, which also had detained the | R<sup>t</sup> Worshipful the Deputy Grand Master longer from them than either of them | wished ; and at the same time informed them that My Lord Lovell, late Grand | Master had paid into his hands thiry pounds for discharging the Acco<sup>t</sup> of his Year | which he would pay in Accordingly into the Treasurer's hands very Speedily. |

The R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> The Lord Viscount Weymouth was therefore | proposed by his Worship to the Grand Lodge to be Grand Master for the | ensuing Year, And the same was received with great Approbation, and his Lordp's | Health was drank to, as Grand Master elect, with all immaginable Tokens | of Satisfaction and Respect. |

[a]The Lodge at the Rummer, Charing Cross, appears in the MS. Lists of 1723 and 1725, but was evidently "discontinued" before 1729. It was composed of men in good social position, and more than forty members are registered in each of the lists, while from these Minutes we see that it had £27.10/- in its Charity Box. It would be interesting if we could find out why the Lodge lapsed. Perhaps the membership was drawn from officials at the Court. If so, the death of George I. and the accession of George II. in 1727 may supply a reason.

It was accordingly proposed that the Sum of Ten Guineas should be | given to Br. [a] Unfortunately, the Minutes of the Lodge of Antiquity for this period are not in existence, but it is clear from the proceedings at the next Quarterly Communication that some members were not in favour of the removal from the King's Arms, St. Paul's Churchyard, to the St. Paul's Head, Ludgate. At this period the general custom seems to have been 'One Tavern, one Lodge,' and at the St. Paul's Head No. 40 had been meeting since 1729. There are but few instances of two Lodges meeting at the same house at one time. We find two at the Bear and Harrow, Butcher Row, one being the University Lodge; and two at the Swan, Long Acre, one being the French Lodge. In these cases the distinctive names were added for the purpose of identification. Failing names (and numbers being but seldom used) the method adopted was to call the Lodges 'Old' and 'New,' and so the Lodge of Antiquity is entered as the "Old Lodge at the Paul's Head" during its stay at that Tavern.

Nos. 83, 55, 94, 37, 75, 43, 128, 68, 16, 93, 101, 63, 71, 3, 14, 53, 42, 76, 107, 23, 54, 20, 123, 57, 110, 114, 9, 77, 21, 15, 19, 11, 40, 1, 8, 46, 89, 70, 79, 85, and 95.

B<sup>r</sup> Revis Secretary Cash to discharge any Orders that might be made out | upon him from Quarterly Communications or Committees of Charity, that | no Brother need be at the trouble of attending for money twice to which | B<sup>r</sup> Revis signified his Concurrence which was acceptable to the Grand | Lodge |

The Grand Master took notice (in a very handsom Speech) of the | Greivance of making extraneous Masons in a private and clandestine | manner, upon small and unworthy Considerations, and proposed that in | Order to prevent that Practice for the future : No person thus admitted | into the Craft, nor any that can be proved to have asisted at such Makings | shall be incapable either of Acting as a Grand Officer on Occasion or | even as an Officer in a private Lodge, nor ought they to have any part | in the General Charity which is much impaired by this clandestine | Practice |

His Worship secondly proposed that since the General Charity | may pofsibly be an Inducement to certain Persons to become Masons | merely to be admitted to the Benefit thereof, That it be a Resolution of | the Grand Lodge that the Brethren subscribing any Petition of Charity | should be able to certify that they have known the Petitioner in reput: | :able or at least tollerable Circumstances. |

And thirdly recommended to them that since undue Influences | might be made use of to get a Petition for Charity subscribed by the Officers | of a Lodge That therefore no such Petition should be of force with a | Committee of Charity whereto also the Majority of the Hands of the | Brethren then belonging to the Lodge should not also be subscribed. |

And lastly the Grand Master proposed that for the future no | Petition for Charity should be received either by a Quarterly Communication | or a Committee of Charity wherein the Name of the Petitioner is not | exprefly mentioned |

Each of the forementioned Proposals were received with great | Unanimity and agreed to severally to be the Resolutions of the Grand | Lodge ; But took Notice of the Behaviour of B<sup>r</sup> Truby and Brother |

Branston to the Committee of Charity who appeared against the Removal | of | the Lodge from the King's Arms, in S<sup>t</sup> Pauls Church Yard to the | Paul's | head in Ludgate Street which Removal appeared to be regular to | the Commée | But when the Committee acquainted the above Brethren | with their Resolution | and requiring them to deliver up the Sword, Lodge | Book, and other Properties | of the Lodge, still remaining in their hands, | they not only refused, but turned | their Backs on the Committee in a most | contemptuous manner, and left the Room | This Proceeding appeared so | very extraordinary among Masons : That the | Grand Lodge ordered them | Nemine con to be discountenanced by all the | Brotherhood, till they | should have obeyed the Injunctions of the said Committee |

Then a Motion was made that D<sup>r</sup> James Anderson should be | desired to | print the Names (in his New Book of Constitutions) of all the | Grand Masters | that could be collected from the beginning of time, | together with a List of the | Names of all Deputy Grand Masters, Grand | Wardens, and the Brethren | that have served the Craft in Quality of Stewards, | which was thought necessary | Because it is Resolved ; That for the future | all Grand Officers (except the | Grand Master) shall be selected out of that | Body. |

The General Healths being drank and his Lordp's in particular with | the greatest Unanimity and affection, attended with Thanks for his Excellent | and acceptable administration, Which his Lordp was pleased to return | in good Wishes for the Prosperity of the Craft, and was pleased to say that | what he had done in this matter he took to be no less his Duty than it had | been his Inclination. | His |

The Deputy Grand Master very Justly took Notice of the great want of | Order that had sometimes happened in the Debates of these Afsemblies, and | earnestly recommended to those present the preserving proper Decency & Temper | in the Mannagement of the Debates, that might at any time arise In order | to which he advised that only one person should speake at a time, and that | no Brother should attempt to interrupt another while he was upon his | Legs, and addresssing himself to the Chair, the person which was concerned | to moderate in the Dispute, and preserve Order and Decorum was pleased to | promise, that when he had done, if two or three happened to rise at a time they | should all be heard to the Point in their Turn His Worship desiring only | that the Practice of the Grand Lodge in this Case might be a fitt Pattern to | be followed by every private Lodge. This Proposition was received with very | great applause |

The Minutes of the General Meeting and Quarterly Communication | held at Mercer's Hall April 17th last were read |

The Minutes of the last Committee of Charity held on Monday the 17th | Instant at the Queen's head in Great Queen's Street were also read by the | Secretary and the Proceedings of the Committee thereupon were approved. |

The Petition of William Ward refered from the said Committee to this | Quarterly Communication was next read, with the Attestations, and his Case | further spoke to, and recommended to this Afsembly by Br De la Marr and | several other Brethren. So that ten pounds were ordered to be paid by the |

Treasur<sup>r</sup> | Treasurer to the said William Ward for his Releife Nemine con |

It was then proposed that Notice should be sent to all such Lodges by the | Secretary of the Resolution taken in the Quarterly Communication held in | February last concerning the Erasure of such Lodges from the Lodge | Book as being within the Bills of Mortality that should neither meet nor | send in their Charity nor attend Quarterly Communications within the space | of one Year. And it was Resolved That the Force of the said Resolution | should only take place from the Date of the Notice now directed to be sent | from the Secretary |

The same was now also extended to all the Lodges within England | and the same Notice appointed to be sent to each of the Countrey Lodges. |

An Address from the Body of the Gentlemen who had served the | Society in the Quality of Stewards directed to the Grand Lodge was then | read praying certain Priviledges in consideration of such their Services &c. |

1. That they might meet monthly or otherwise as a Lodge of Master | Masons (under the Denomination of the Stewards Lodge) and be enrolled | among the Number of the Lodges as usual with the times of their Meeting |

2. That they might be so far distinguished (since all the Grand Officers | are for the future appointed to be chosen out of their Number ; and in order | to qualify themselves to the right discharge of those Officers, when called to | the same) send a Deputation of twelve from the whole Body of Stewards | to each Quarterly Communication, all the twelve to have Voices, and all that | come to pay half a Crown apiece towards the Expence of that Occasion |

3. That no person who had not served the Society as a Steward | might be permitted at a Quarterly Communication or elsewhere to | wear |

wear their coloured Ribbons or Aprons But. |

[a] That such as had been Stewards might be indulged with wearing a particular Jewel by way of distinction suspended in their proper Ribbond wherever they appear as Masons the pattern of which they then offered These were granted them upon a Division. 45 of the Assembly being on the affirmative side and 42 on the Negative. |

It was also Declared That. |

The twelve Stewards for any current year might attend in their proper colour, &c | paying as usual for four Lodges, but they are not allowed votes, nor are to be heard in | any Debate unless something relating to the ensuing Feast be under Consideration. |

[b] An Account was sent to the Quarterly Communication by one B: | Claudius of some improper Methods in admitting Brothers on Ballot | Members of the Fountain near Temple Bar; but this concerning that particular | Lodge only, and it being in their own power to rectify to them it was referred. |

All Businefs of Consequence being over The DGM closed the | Lodge in form. |

[a] It is not likely that any serious objection would be made to the constitution of a Lodge for the Stewards, nor to a renewed declaration that they alone were entitled to wear their particular colour. The points on which the differences of opinion occurred must therefore have been:—(a) The inclusion in the membership of Grand Lodge of certain brethren who were not of necessity Masters or Wardens; or (b) the wearing of Jewels (and inferentially collars) by those who were not actually holders of office.

The Stewards seem to have chosen a meeting when the attendance was comparatively small, and even then they carried their points by only an insignificant majority. At the next meeting more than 170 brethren were present, and the extent of the confusion which then prevailed can best be judged by a perusal of the new regulations subsequently passed "for the better preservation of Order and Regularity."

Accepting the tradition that the jewel at present worn by members of the Grand Stewards' Lodge is of the pattern submitted at this meeting (and designed by William Hogarth, a Steward in the previous year), we may note that the combination of Square, Level, and Plumb-rule seems to indicate that the wearer had actually served the three principal offices in a private Lodge.

[b] I cannot absolutely identify this Lodge. It may be No. 55, which at this meeting is entered as meeting at the Rummer, Henrietta Street, Covent Garden, but removed to the Fountain, Fleet Street, before the next Quarterly Communication, in December. At the Fountain in the Strand, No. 9 (the present Royal Alpha Lodge) met in 1722-3, and No. 13 (the present Royal Kent Lodge of Antiquity) from 1731 to 1733.

[a] Lord Kingston had been Grand Master in England in 1728-30, and was at this period Grand Master in Ireland for the second time. This resolution seems to point to alterations having been made which prevented intervisitation.
We know that the premier Grand Lodge was not recognised either in Ireland or Scotland, though both maintained fraternal correspondence with the Antients.
Recognition by the Grand Lodges in the sister Kingdoms, and a Union with the Grand Lodge of the Antients, only became possible after the Resolution passed by the Moderns in 1809---"that it is not necessary any longer to continue in force those Measures which were resorted to in or about the year 1739 respecting Irregular Masons, and do therefore enjoin the several Lodges to revert to the ancient Land Marks of the Society."

admitted, by virtue of a Deputation from the Lord | Kingston present G. Master of Ireland. But it appearing there | was no particular Recommendation from his Lord<sup>p</sup> in this affair, | their Request could not be comply'd with, unless they would accept | of a new Constitution here. |

[a] S<sup>r</sup> Robert Lawley Master of the Stewards Lodge | reported that B<sup>r</sup> Clare the Junior G Warden had been pleas'd | to entertain the Steward's Lodge on the first visiting Night, with | an excellent Discourse containing some Maxims and Advice that | concerned the Society in general which at that time seemed to their | own Lodge, and an hundred visiting Brethren, many of whom | were there present that they had directed him to recommend it to be | repeated with Leave of the Grand-Lodge : In pursuance | of which he moved that B<sup>r</sup> Clare might be desired to read it to | the Representatives of the whole Body which was done and | they received it with great Attention, and Applause, and his Health | was afterwards drank to, and he desired to print the same. |

The Lodge took the No. 133, and remained on the List until 1768, though it probably joined the Grand Lodge of France in 1738. The Lodge at the Sun, Old Round Court, Strand, was No. 134, which lapsed about 1743. The Lisbon Lodge, No. 135, was erased in 1755. Arms, Fulham, and at this meeting we find No. 47 attending for the first time from the White Lion, Aldersgate. No. 47 met at the Three Crowns, Stoke Newington, from June, 1728, to July, 1729, no attendances being recorded later.
It would therefore seem that the Lodge lapsed about that time, and that its number was now used for the older Lodge from Fulham.

The Minutes of the last Quarterly Communication were | read by
B<sup>t</sup> Revis the publick Secretary, as were also the Pro: | :ceedings of the last
Committee of Charity |

The said Committee recommended two things to the Consideration | of this Quarterly Communication the first relating to the better | distribution of this Charity Viz<sup>t</sup> That it be a Rule for the | future, That no Petition for Charity can be produced to a Commee | that hath not been offered to the publick Secretary and lain in | his hands ten days at least before the Meeting of such Committee | that he may have reasonable time to inform himself concerning | the Allegations of such Petitions if they appear to be dubious | in this the Quarterly Communication unanimously concurred |

The second related to the Craft in general which was a |
Recommendation from the said Committee that certain Laws | should be enacted for the better Preservation of Order and Re: | gularity in Quarterly Communications and publick Afsemblies | This as it appeared highly reasonable was voted necessary | Nemine con |

[a]Of the newly constituted Lodges, No. 140, at Ashley's London Punch House, Ludgate Hill, lapsed about 1744; the Three Cups, High Street, Colchester,
No. 141, is the present Angel Lodge, No. 51; while the Shrewsbury Lodge, No. 142, was erased in 1754, and again, after a resuscitation, in 1768.

[Lord Weymouth, G.M.]

6 April]

The acting G: Master then acquainted the Assembly that himself with others of the Grand Officers then present had thought of some proper Laws which he had then in his hands to propose to the Society for their Approbation or amendment if they were disposed to have them read. This being generally accept<sup>ble</sup> His Worship proceeded to read the first Viz:

I That none be admitted to any future Quarterly Communication except such Masons as appear in the Character of and are the known and declared Members of the Grand Lodge on any pretence whatsoever Unless they shall be called in as Witnesses or as Petitioners or that shall be admitted on a Motion publickly made by Permission of the Society sitting for which the Cause is always to be assigned

On reading this Article a Debate arose relating to the Words who ought to be understood by the known and declared Members of the Grand-Lodge and after a long Debate it was agreed and declared that the following persons were the Members and had a Right to be present at all Quarterly Communications of Masons

- 1 The four present and all past Grand Officers
- 2 The Masters and Wardens of all constituted Lodges.
- 3 The Master and Wardens and nine Representatives of the Stewards Lodge.

With this Explanation the Law abovesaid was unanimously agreed to.

His Worship then proceeded to the second Law to be proposed Viz:

That at the third Stroke of the Grand Master or his Deputy Mallett (always to be repeated by the Grand Wardens) there should be a strict and general Silence which if any Member should presume to break till Leave be given from the Chair, he shall be immediately named or at least pointed out by one of the Grand Officers and shall be called up to the Chair and suffer a publick Reprimand from the Grand Master or his Deputy

This received the Sanction of the Society Nemine con

[Lord Weymouth, G.M.]

6 April]

[96] 3 Whenever the Grand Master or his Deputy shall | see cause to rise from his Chair and shall call to Order every private | Member of the Society shall immediately take his Seat keeping | a | a strict Silence all the time either of their said Worships is on his | Feet under the like Penalty. |

To this the Quarterly Communication consented Nemine | con |

4 It was revived with universal Consent First that each of | the [a]
Members of a Quarterly Communication (the G: Wardens | excepted who have more immediately the Care of the Grand Lodge) | be obliged to keep his Seat during the publick Conferences under | the like penalty. And 2
That no person whatever is to speak | twice to the same Point in any one
Quarterly Communication | he shall be called on from the Chair so to do, or in Order to ex: | plain his own Meaning. |

Norfolk
Ap. 21: 1730.

5 Every Member who has anything to offer which may | require the Attention of the Afsembly, shall rise and keep standing | in his Place while he is speaking, always addresssing himself to | the Grand Master or his Deputy in the Chair Nor shall any | person presume to interrupt his Discourse under the penalty before | : said Unless the Grand Master or his
Deputy finding him | wandring from the point then under publick
Consideration shall | think fitt to call him to order In which Case he is to sit down | forthwith, and after he has been sett right he may proceed if he | sees good. |

[97] 6 Should it happen that any Member of a Quarterly | Communication shall be twice called to order in any one Night | for offending against any of the Rules beforegoing, and should | be guilty of a third offence of the same Nature he shall at the | peremptory Command of the Grand Master or his Deputy be obliged | to quitt the Grand Lodge for that Night. |

And that none might plead Ignorance herein it was Resolved | that these Rules of Conference shall be audibly read by the publick |
Secretary at every Quarterly Communication after the opening of the |
Lodge. |

[Lord Weymouth, G.M.]

6 April]

7. It was also ordered that whatever Member should be so rude | as to hiss at what another says he shall be excluded the Quarterly Com: | :munication in form and declared incapable of ever being admitted a | Member in any Quarterly Communication succeeding. |

8. No Motion for a New Regulation or the Alteration or | Repeal of an old one shall be received at a Quarterly Communication | that hath not by the Proposer been handed up to the G: Master or his | Deputy in Writing for the sake of Certainty at least ten Minutes | before the thing is publickly proposed, after such Proposition it shall by | the Secretary be audibly read. If then it be seconded by some Member | present, and supported by a third it shall be committed to the Consideration | of the whole Assembly and the sense of the Grand-Lodge | shall be fully heard thereon. After which the Question shall by the | Grand Master or his Deputy be distinctly put both ways 1 For | the Question, with its amend-ments if any and 2<sup>d</sup> against it. This | was passd without Objection |

9. The Concurrence or dissent of the Members is always to be signified by their holding up one of their hands which the Grand | Wardens are to count, unless the number of hands be so very unequal | as to render it useles nor let any other kind of Division ever be admitted | among the Masons This was agreed to |

Then Nathaniel Blackerby Esq<sup>r</sup> produced his Acco<sup>t</sup> and | Vouchers for his Disbursements, by which it appears there is a | Ballance in his hands of £115.3— Together with the Sum | of £33. 1. 6 collected this Night makes in all £148 : 4 : 6 | which Acco<sup>t</sup> was passd |

The Petition of Tho<sup>s</sup> Bailey was read setting forth his Misfortunes | and praying Releife and regularly attested. |

Whereupon the Grand Lodge ordered him ten Guineas for | his present Releife |

The Petition of William Squire was read but it not ap: | :pearing that he was duely Qualified the same was rejected. |

The Petition of Redmund Burk was read setting forth | his Misfortunes, and praying Releife regularly attested. |

[Lord Weymouth, G.M.]

6 April]

The Petition of B<sup>e</sup> William Reid late publick Secretary | was presented and read complaining of several hardships he had sustained | in the Service of the Craft. |

Whereupon the Grand Lodge ordered that ten Guineas | should be paid into the hands of B<sup>e</sup> Revis to be applyed towards en : | :abling for his going abroad and to "o other purpose whatsoever |

Then the Deputy Grand Master signified to the Brethren | that he had it in command from the Grand Master to propose The | R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> The Earle of Loudoun (now present) | to be Grand Master for the ensuing year, and declared his | Lordp<sup>s</sup> good Intentions to serve the Society which Proposal was | kindly received, and unanimously approved of His Lordp<sup>s</sup> Health | was drank to, and ordered to be put in Nomination on the next | Grand | Grand-Feast day. |

And also signified to them that the Grand Feast would be held | on Thursday the 15th Instant at Fish Mongers Hall in Thames | Street, and therefore desired that all the Brethren present who keeps | Coaches &c would accompany his Lordp from his House in Privy | Garden to the Hall aforesaid on that day. |

Then The R<sup>t</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> The Earl of Loudoun Grand Master elect | .....addressed himself to the Brethren in a handsom Speech signifying his great Regard and Love to the Craft. Invited all | the Brethren that should attend him to breakfast with him on that | day. Which Invitation was received with great Applause |

[a]The Lodges continue to be entered in what we may presume to be the order of arrival at the place of meeting. They are:— Nos. 22, 69, 150, 14, 159, 144 (?), 152, 49, 11, 111, 153, 98, 94, and 84, on page 126; and Nos. 37, 130, 6, 110, 121, 16, 9, 53, 99, 107, 114, 163, 91, 138, 40, 161, 61, 151, 162, 38, 39, 57, 5, 76, 8, 168, 27, 43, 148, 1, 13, 77, 112, 169, 158, 134, 21, 25, 19, 95, 128, 154, 46, 4, 44, 20, 54, 137, 83, 47, 92, and 160, on page 127 of the Minutes.

No Lodge is known to have been meeting at the Three Tuns, Spitalfields, at this date, but probably No. 144 is intended. It paid its charity from the Greyhound, Spitalfields.

The Minutes of the last Grand Lodge read | & Confirmed |

The Minutes of the last Committee of Charity | also read & approved off |

Bro: Anderson informed the Lodge that he had | sometime since Prepared a New Edition of the | Book of Constitutions with several Additions and Amendm<sup>ts</sup> which having been perused & (after some | alterations made therein) Approved off by several | Grand Officers was now ready for the Prefs and he | therefore desired the Grand Masters Commands & | the approbation of this Lodge for printing the | same Which request was granted him |

Bro: Anderson likewise informed the Lodge that | he had with the Assistance of Bro: Payne L:G:M. | prepared a Law or Regulation relating to the | removal of Lodges which (in case the same should | be approved off) he intended to incert in the said | Book of Constitutions as one of the Laws or Regu- | -lations of the Craft When the same being delivered | to the Grand Master in Writing was read by the | Secretary & is as follows |

[Earl of Darnley, G.M.]

25 Jan.]

[128]

Whereas Disputes have arisen about | the removal of Lodges from one house to another & | about the Persons to whom the Power of removing | belongs It is hereby Declared that no Lodge shall | be removed without the Masters knowledge That | no Motion be made for removing in the Master's | absence And that if the Motion be seconded or | thirded
the Master shall Order Summons's to every | individual Member specifying
the Business & | appointing a day for hearing & determining the | affair at least Ten days before And that the deter- | -mination shall be made by the Majority provided | the Master be one of that Majority But if he shall | be of the minority or against removing the Lodge | shall not be removed unless the Majority Consist of | two thirds of the Members present But if the Master | shall refuse to direct such Summons's either of the | Wardens may do it And if the Master neglects to attend | on the day fixed the Warden may preside in determi- | -ning the Affair in the manner prescribed But they | shall not in the Masters absence Enter upon any | other Cause then what is particularly mentioned | in the Summons's And if the Lodge is thus regu- | -larly ordered to be removed the Master or Warden | shall send notice thereof to the Grand Sec<sup>y</sup> for | publishing the same at the next quarterly | Communication |

And then being proposed for a Law or Regulation | & seconded & afterwards supported by several | Brethren The same was on the Question being | put both for & against it Carried in the Affirmative | unanimously
And Ordered to be incerted in the | said Book accordingly |

The Lodges were then called over & the | following paid in their Charity

Braund's head	1	1	..	[a]
Sun Clare market	0	10	6
Anchor & Baptist head	1	1	..

[a]These contributing Lodges were evidently called over twice from a list arranged in numerical order. They appear as:—

Nos. 6, 13, 21, 27, 39, 54, 77, 94, 107, 111, 121, 137, 144, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 160, 11, 14, 35, 40, 44, 69, 84, 99, 110, 117, 130, 138, 148, 162, 163, 164, 165, and 166.

The Three Tuns and Half Moon, Whitechapel, is no doubt meant for No. 160, at the Three Tuns and Half Moon, Snow Hill.

No. 13 is said to have been meeting in the previous year at the Sun Theatre Coffee House, Clare Market. We now have it described in one place as the Theatre Coffee House, Bridges Street, and in another as the Sun, Clare Market.
Bridges Street was the northern half of the present Catherine Street, Strand, a little to the east of Covent Garden.

Of the newly constituted Lodges, No. 162, at the Gun, Jermyn Street, is now the Lodge of Felicity, No. 58. All the others have lapsed.

The Lodge then took into Consideration the | Proposal agreed to by the last Committee of Charity & | referred to this Lodge ( Viz<sup>t</sup> ) That whoever should be | Treasurer of this Society should Give to such person | or persons as the said Lodge sho<sup>d</sup> appoint such | Security for the mony in his hands as to them sho<sup>d</sup> | seem proper And after long Debate It was proposed | by some Brethren that the Treasurer sho<sup>d</sup> from time | to time Give his own Bond only to the G.M. & his D. | for the time being in the Penalty of Five hundred | pounds or a larger Sum if necessary Conditioned for | his his Heirs Executors & Administrators Account<sup>s</sup> | with them or one of them from time to time when | required for all such money as shall come to his | hands belonging to this Society & paying to them | or one of them or their Order what shall appear to | be in his hands on the Ballance thereof And some | other Brethren Proposed that some other Person | sho<sup>d</sup> join with the Treasurer in such Bond as his | Security And the first Question being put It was | Carried in the Negative by a great Majority and | the second Question being put it was Carried in the | Affirmative by a like Majority |

[a]None of these newly constituted Lodges are now in existence. They were respectively Nos. 136, 137, 168, 167, 169, and 170, in the first enumeration.

6 April]

The Treasurer then stood up & thanked the Brethren for the honour they had done him in continuing him so long their Treasurer But told them that he could not be insensible of the Indignity offered him in the above Resolutions & the ill treatment he had met with in the Debate & that he resented the same in <sup>the</sup> highest manner And then resigned his Office of Treasurer & promised to send the next morning to the G:S. a Draught on the Bank for the Ballance in his hands. |

Several of the Brethren concerned in the Debate then acquainted the Lodge that they had not the least intent of offering any Indignity or ill treatment to the Treasurer. That their sole Design was the good of the Craft & incontestibly to secure the Property of the Society & were sorry to find what had been done was taken amifs by any Brother And one of them observed that to prevent such Misunderstandings for the future It might be proper to take this Opportunity of the Treasurership being Vacant to propose that all future Treasurers of this Society sho<sup>d</sup> with some other person as his Security Enter into such Bond with such Condition as is abovementioned And he proposed the same accordingly Which being Seconded & thirded was on the Question put both ways unanimously carried in the Affirmative |

The Lodge then took into Consideration the appointing a new Treasurer & Bro: John Revis the G:S. being nominated by Bro: Benjamin Gascoyne for that purpose was unanimously Elected Treasurer & at his request Bro: Gascoyne agreed to be his Security Which was accepted of by the Lodge And it was Ordered that a proper Bond be prepared to be executed by them at the next Grand Feast. |

The late Treasurer then delivered his Accounts which <sup>were</sup> examined & approved off & there appeared to be in his hands on the Ballance thereof £139 : 10 . |

Ordered that the said late Treasurer do pay such Ballance to Bro: Revis. |

Ordered that the £43 : 11 : 6 Collected this night be paid to Bro: Revis Which was done accordingly | & with £1 : 1. since sent as Charity from the Royal Vineyard S<sup>t</sup>. James's Park makes together £44 : 12 : 6 |

But Bro. Revis | who was then elected Treasurer desiring to be | excused serving that Office |

[a]Although the Grand Master and his successor (G.M. 1754-1757) both signed
Carnarvan, I have adopted the more usual spelling in the headlines of these pages.

James Brydges (1673-1744) was created Viscount Wilton and Earl of Carnarvon in 1714; and Marquis of Carnarvon and Duke of Chandos in 1719.

His 6th son Henry Brydges (1708-1771) was styled Marquis of Carnarvon from 1727 to 1744 when he succeeded his father as 2nd Duke of Chandos. This was the Grand Master of 1738-9.

His son James Brydges (1731-1789) was also styled Marquis of Carnarvon from 1744 to 1771 when he inherited the Dukedom. He was Grand Master from

The Minutes of the last Q:C. read & Confirmed. |

The Minutes of the last Committee of Charity read | & approved
off. |

The Petition of Bro: Mathew Jones Setting forth | his Misfortunes & Imprisonment in Newgate (referred | from the said Committee) was read & spoke to by several | Brethren And it being represented that the Debt due | to the Creditor at whose Suit he is confined & all his other |
Debts (which were very triffling) might not only be | compromised but that there would also something | remain to releive his present necessities
if Ten pounds | were given him |

Ordered that Bro: Revis do pay Ten pounds to | Bro<sup>rs</sup> William Cole Kemp & Robert Walker tow<sup>ds</sup>. | the Pet<sup>rs</sup> relief & to discharge his Debts on their |

[142]

Reporting to him that the same can be compromised | for that Sum But if not that then he do pay only Five | pounds to them to be applied towards the pet<sup>rs</sup> & his | Family's present Subsistance |

The Lodges were then called over & the following paid | in their

Ordered that the above Sum of Twenty eight | pounds five shillings
be paid to Bro : Revis 'till a new | Treasurer is appointed. |

The Lodge then took into Consideration the Electing | a new Treasurer Bro : Revis (who was Elected at the Q:C. | in April last) having at the last Grand Feast desired | to be excused serving that Office When Bro : Lord George | Graham from the Chair informed the Brethren that he | had the Grand Masters Commands to propose Bro : John | Jefse Esq<sup>r</sup>
as a very proper Person to serve that Office |

Whereon Bro : Samuel Righton handed up to the | Chair an Objection in Writing against proceeding to an | imediate Election for that he had a Bro<sup>r</sup> to propose to serve | the said Office who would not only give Land Security of a | sufficient Vallue in the County of Middlesex for what he | should be intrusted with But would also allow Interest | after the rate of Four pounds ꝑ Centu ꝑ Annu for any | certain part therof And the said Bro : Wrighton being | desired to name the Person he intended to propose He for | sometime declined so doing till the Lodge had declared | their Approbation of the terms on which his Service was | offered But at length after being many times called upon | for that purpose Proposed [b]
Bro<sup>r</sup> John Horne of | Newport Market Poulterer to serve the said Office who | thereupon stood up & declared his willingnefs to accept | thereof on the aforesaid terms But great Debates arising | thereon & it being high twelve the Lodge was closed with<sup>t</sup> | coming to any Determination. |

[a]Of the newly constituted Lodges, only one now remains. The Angel, Crispin Street, Spitalfields, is the present Lodge of Peace and Harmony, No. 60.

[b]His son, afterwards John Horne Tooke, is said to have described him to his school-fellows as a "Turkey Merchant."

It was then Proposed that the Lodge should proceed to | the Election of a Treasurer in the room of Bro: Revis who | had declined When Bro: Desagulier moved that it might | be left to the Right Worship<sup>t</sup> G:M. to name some person to |

[a]Of the Lodges paying for Constitution, The Swan, Fish Street Hill, was No. 175, which was crased in 1742. The Bull's Head, Hereford, is a mistake of the Scribe for Halifax, Yorkshire. The Lodge is now Probity, No. 61. No. 177, at the Swan, Tewkesbury, lapsed in 1754; and the Flowerpot, Bishopsgate (No. 178) in 1742. No. 179, at the Chequers, Charing Cross, is now the Royal Naval Lodge, No. 59.

Lodge No. 26, dating from 1724, met at the King's Arms, Strand, to 1732, and is said to have removed to the White Swan and Royal Oak, Whitecross Street, in 1733, and to the Key and Garter, Pall Mall, in 1734. I am inclined to think that the Lodge lapsed in 1732, and that there has been some confusion with No. 24, which was certainly meeting at the White Swan and Royal Oak from 1734 to 1748. Be that as it may, the Lodge which now paid for Constitution was a new creation and should have appeared as No. 179, instead of receiving the vacant No. 26.

Bro : Jefse which was done accordingly. |

Bro : Revis then delivered his Accounts which were | exam<sup>d</sup> & approved off And there appeared to be in his hands | on the Ballance thereof £135 : 5 : 6. |

Ordered that Bro: Revis do pay such Ball<sup>ce</sup> | to Bro: Jefse. |

The Scheme proposed by Bro: John Boaman for raising | a sufficient Fund to maintain cloath & place out | Apprentice a certain number of Masons Sons (mentioned in the Minutes of the above Committee) was spoke to But | after a long Debate & several Questions put There being | reason to apprehend that it would greatly affect the Fund | of Charity already established the same was rejected. |

All Business being over the Lodge was Closed. |

[a] For details of this proposal, see the paper by Bro. Dr. W. J. Chetwode Crawley, on The Craft and its Orphans in the Eighteenth Century, in A.Q.C., xxiii., 167. The scheme appears to have been circulated amongst the Lodges, for in the Minutes of No. 111, at the Theatre Tavern, Goodman's Fields, we find the following entries:—

1739. Jany. 8th. The Mas<sup>r</sup>. Informed the Lodge that he had rec<sup>d</sup>. a Letter from the Grand Mas<sup>r</sup>. and Grand Wardens with a proposal inclosed for raising yearly £310 for the carrying on and Providing for 20 Children of Masons & Binding 4 to Trades every year &c.

1739. Jany. 22nd. This Night the Lodge took into their consideration Concerning the Letter rec<sup>d</sup>. from the Grand Master and Grand Wardens, And the Brethren whose names are hereunto Subscribed are Desirous to assist and Encourage so laudable and Good an Undertaking.

Sixteen names were appended, but the Lodge was not represented at the meeting of Grand Lodge on 31st January.

[a] These Lodges are:—

Nos. 94, 38, 26, 179 (1740), 68, 152, 147, 188, 75, 21, 6, 12, 18, 161, 107, 43, 98, 123, 91<sup>p</sup>, 170, 39, 69, 157, 130, 148, 99, 14, 56, 49, 15, 17, 93, 183, 112, 155, 1, 77, 13, 63, 22, 163, 189, 53, 158, 46, and 111, on page 160; and Nos. 57, 82, 9, 133, 151, 40, 173, 160, 110, 103, 101, 83, 162, 61, 168, 84, 128, 8, 76, 92, 134, 187, 169, and 150, on page 161, of the Minutes.

At this point ends the enumeration which had been commenced in 1729, and in the Engraved List of 1740 there is a general closing up of lapsed numbers. It will be noticed that the Scribe has confused the Lodge at the Wheatsheaf, Leicester, with the Grenadiers' Lodge, of London. The latter was No. 189 (the last of the old enumeration), and the former became No. 179 of the new enumeration in 1740.

The Lodge at the Feathers, Chandos Street, cannot be identified with certainty. No. 91 had been meeting at the Sun, Fleet Street, until April, 1739, and only one later attendance is noted, vizt., January, 1741, from the Three Tuns, Grosvenor Street.

[a]The Lodge at the Axe and Gate, Westminster, became No. 188, and the Grenadiers Lodge No. 189, under the 1729/39 enumeration, the former lapsing soon after the Union, while the latter still exists as No. 66.
 Of the Lodges in the West Indies, the three in Antigua all lapsed shortly before the Union. They were respectively Nos. 154, 164, and 170 under the 1740 enumeration. The Lodge at Basseterre, St. Christopher, became No. 174 in 1740, and was in existence down to 1862.
 [b]There is a mistake in this statement of money received. It seems as though £2 2/- paid by a Lodge for Constitution has been omitted.

[Lord Raymond, G.M.]

[1739
12 Dec.]

The Petition of Bro: Thomas Crudeli a prisoner in the Inquisition in Florence on Account of Masonry referred | by the last
Committee of Charity was read & spoke to by sev! | Brethren & particularly recommended by the G:M. |

Ordered that the Treasurer do pay the Sum of | Twenty one pounds to the R<sup>t</sup> Worship<sup>l</sup> G:M. to be applied | towards the Pet<sup>r</sup>
relief. |

The Treasurer delivered his Accounts which were | examined & approved off And there appears to be in his | hands on the Ballance thereof In money £21 : 2 : 6, & an | East India Bond for £100—exclusive of the Sum of £46 : 2 : 6 | rece'd this night. |

Then the Lodge was moved to take into their farther Cons<sup>n</sup> |
the Complaint concerning the irregular making of Masons |

Whereupon the G:M. took notice that althô some | Brethren might have been guilty of an Offence tending | so much to destroy the Cement of the Lodge & so utterly | inconsistent with the Rules of the Society Yet he could | not bring himself to beleive that it had been done | otherwise than through Inadvertency And therefore | proposed that if any such Brethren there were they | might be forgiven for this time Which was Ordered | accordingly |

Ordered that the Laws be strictly put in | Execution against all such Brethren as shall for the | future countenance connive or afsist at any such | irregular makings |

All Business being over the Lodge was Closed |
