Quatuor Coronati Lodge

Quatuor Coronati is the world's premier research lodge. Established in 1884 (and consecrated in 1886), the lodge's founders wished to advance an evidence-based approach to study Masonic history and research the origins of Freemasonry. Their approach was intended to replace the more imaginative writings of earlier authors and was later referred to as the 'authentic school' of Masonic research. Quatuor Coronati continues to adopt the same principles today.

How can I get Involved?

Whether you are based in North or South America, the UK, Europe, Africa, Asia or Australasia, we would be delighted if you would like to become involved in the research activities of Quatuor Coronati. The first step is to join our Correspondence Circle, which is open to anyone interested in Masonic research or historical research more broadly.

Joining the Correspondence Circle places you in a group dedicated to making a daily contribution to Masonic knowledge. Whether you are just interested in learning about Freemasonry or wish to do research yourself, QCCC can help.

Membership of the Correspondence Circle

Joining the circle provides you with:

- A free copy of the Transactions of the Lodge, Ars Quatuor Coronati, published each Autumn as a handsome hardback clothbound book.
- A copy of the summons to the meetings (if you provide an email address)
- Assistance with research enquiries
- The right to wear our tie pin and UGLE approved breast jewel
- Discounts and priority booking to our conferences and events

Other Benefits

Members of the Correspondence Circle who are members of constitutions recognised by the United Grand Lodge of England are welcome to attend all our meetings and if they book in advance can come to the dinner afterwards, giving a chance to meet the speakers and the members of the Lodge. The Lodge normally meets in Freemasons' Hall in Great Queen Street, London. Check the website for details.

How much does it cost?

We aim to keep our overheads to a minimum but membership covers the cost of publication and postage. The price of membership thus varies in line with the cost of mailing out the Transactions. Our current prices are:

UK £35

Europe £38

USA £40 (or US$60 if paying by cheque)

Rest of the World £43

Frequently Asked Questions
