How to Get There

By Car

The George Washington Masonic National Memorial is in Alexandria, VA, just over the river from Washington DC. Take the Telegraph Road exit off of the Capital Beltway (I-495). Daytime parking is free on a first-come, first-served basis. Up to 200 parking spaces are available.

Via the DC Metro system

The King Street Metro Station is within walking distance of the Memorial. The Yellow and Blue lines come to the station providing easy access from DC. The King Street Metro has connections to the free King Street Trolley as well as several WMATA and DASH bus lines. There is also a direct link – two stops on the Yellow line - from Ronald Reagan International Airport to King Street.

By Amtrak

Take Amtrak to Alexandria Union Station. The Memorial is across the street to the west.
