INDEX

Compiled by G. NORMAN KNIGHT, M.A., Barrister-at-Law,
Chairman of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated. "(I.C.," refers to the Irish Constitution; "(S.C.," to the Scottish Constitution; "(A.," refers to Antients.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

CORRIGENDA

- p. 66, line 23. The ref., (A.Q.C., vol. ixxii, p. 6) should read (A.Q.C., vol. lxxii, p. 91).
- p. 192, line 2. Delete the words “or in any other” and add: It appears in an unsavoury work, Les Francs-Maçons Ecrasés, 1747, which describes the torture of Pichard, (sic) and, inter alia, names Cromwell as the founder of the Craft !

INDEX

Compiled by G. NORMAN KNIGHT, M.A., Barrister-at-Law,
Chairman of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated. "(I.C.)" refers to the Irish Constitution; "(S.C.)" to the Scottish Constitution; "(A.)" refers to Antients.

a or b after a page reference indicates the column (pp. 152-68).

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

Development of the Content of Masonry during the 18th century. INAUGURAL ADDRESS by F. R. WORTS	1
---	---

Field-Marshal the Duke of Kent as a Freemason. By P. A. Tunbridge	17
---	----

Divisions in English Freemasonry; "Ancients" v. "Moderns". H.R.H. Prince Edward as a young man. Initiation; La Loge l'Union, 1789; Freemasonry in Geneva. Madame St. Laurent, Prov. G.M., Lower Canada; C.-in-C., North America; Governor of Gibraltar; the mutiny, 1802. "On the shelf" in England. The Duke of Kent and Robert Owen. Grand Master, "Ancients"; the Masonic Union of 1813. A daughter—Queen Victoria.

The Change from Christianity to Deism in Freemasonry. By J. R. Clarke	49

A belief in Christianity was among the requirements of masonry in the early days of the Craft, but a change in outlook became apparent in 1722-3. The growth during the seventeenth century of the belief in "that religion in which all men agree" was responsible for the fundamental change expressed in the First General Charge of the 1723 Constitutions. Reasons are given for attributing its wording to Desaguliers, Payne and Beale, not to Anderson. Men became Freemasons who could not have subscribed to the statements of belief contained in the Old Charges; Benjamin Franklin is considered as the outstanding example of these.

Freemasonry in Finland. By Frederick Smyth	87

1756, the first Lodge; 1822, Darkness; 1922, the rise of a Nation and its Freemasonry; Beyond the Craft; Swedish Freemasonry in Finland; Intervisitation.

INDEX

Compiled by G. NORMAN KNIGHT, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, L.G.R.

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated. "(E.C.)" refers to the English Constitution; "(I.C.)" to the Irish Constitution; "(S.C.)" to the Scottish Constitution; "(A.)" refers to the Antients.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by G. NORMAN KNIGHT, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, L.G.R.
Vice-President of the Society of Indexers.

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated. "(E.C.," refers to the English Constitution; "(I.C.," to the Irish Constitution; "(S.C.," to the Scottish Constitution; "(A.," refers to the Antients.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by G. NORMAN KNIGHT, M.A., L.G.R.
Vice-President of the Society of Indexers
Wheatley Gold Medallist for outstanding index of 1967

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated. "(I.C.," refers to the Irish Constitution; "(S.C.," to the Scottish Constitution; "(A.," refers to "Antients".

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by G. NORMAN KNIGHT, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, L.G.R.

Vice-President of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated. "(I.C.)" refers to the Irish Constitution; "(S.C.)" to the Scottish Constitution; "(A.)" refers to "Antients".

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by G. NORMAN KNIGHT, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, L.G.R.

President of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated. "(I.C.)" refers to the Irish Constitution; "(S.C.)" to the Scottish Constitution; "(A.*)" refers to "Antients".

Page numbers in bold type denote that complete headed sections are devoted to the items.

Page numbers in italics denote illustrations or their captions: bis after a page number indicates two separate references on that page: ter similarly indicates three references and quater four references: passim after a group of page numbers (e.g. 45-50 passim) denotes that the subject is referred to not continuously but in scattered passages throughout those pages: q. stands for quoted: q.v. for quod vide ("which see"). Three dots (...) are placed between Lodge numbers and page numbers in order to distinguish the latter.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or indicated in the name), are (or were) London Lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish, (M) to that of Massachusetts — under which neither Lodges nor Chapters bear numbers — and (A) to the “Antients”.

Lodges still in existence are indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English Lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final renumbering of 1863 and that the Lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

Page numbers in bold type denote that complete sections are devoted to the subjects. Page numbers in italics denote illustrations or their captions; bis and ter after page numbers indicate two or three separate references on those pages; passim (e.g. 45-50 passim) denotes that the subject is referred to not continuously but in scattered passages throughout the pages; q. stands for quoted.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH

Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or indicated in the name), are (or were) London Lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English Lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and that the Lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

Page numbers in bold type denote that complete sections are devoted to the subjects; page numbers in italics denote illustrations or their captions; bis and ter after page numbers indicate two or three separate references on those pages; passim (e.g. 45-50 passim) denotes that the subject is referred to not continuously but in scattered passages throughout the pages; q. stands for quoted.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or indicated in the name), are (or were) London Lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish, (NZC) to that of New Zealand, (GLNF) to the Grande Loge Nationale Française and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English Lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and usually that the Lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

Compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or indicated in the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish, (NZC) to that of New Zealand, (GLNF) to the Grande Loge Nationale Française and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, usually, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or indicated in the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish, (GLNF) to the Grande Loge Nationale Française and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, usually, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or indicated in the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish, (GLNF) to the Grande Loge Nationale Française and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, usually, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

The alphabetical arrangement is according to the word-by-word system.

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or indicated in the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, usually, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or made clear by the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or made clear by the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the 'Antients'.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

Other abbreviations now used: Ch. - Chapter; Fmy - Freemasonry; G.L. - Grand Lodge; Kt - Knight; L. - Lodge; PH - Prince Hall.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or made clear by the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given (or made clear by the name), are (or were) London lodges. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients.

Lodges still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitutions unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients.

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished. For Royal Arch chapters the sign † performs a somewhat similar function.

Boards and Committees mentioned in the index may be taken to be of the United Grand Lodge of England or its Board of General Purposes (B.G.P.) unless otherwise indicated.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitutions unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (G) denotes one of the German Grand Lodges, past or present, (GLNF) the Grande Loge Nationale Française and (GRC) the Grand Register of Canada [in Ontario].

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished. For Royal Arch chapters the sign † performs a somewhat similar function.

ERRATA

AQC 95, p. 117, last line but 3.

The author, Bro. W. McLeod, wished to acknowledge the assistance of C. N. Batham, M. C. Jacob and G. R. Silber but unfortunately the name Jacob dropped out of the line of type and members are asked to amend their copies accordingly. We tender our profound apologies to him and to Bro. McLeod.

AQC 96, para. 1.

The 2nd. Duke of Buccleuch did not succeed to the title until 1732. As Grand Master in 1723 he was the Earl of Dalkeith and is so indexed (p. 237).

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

- Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (G) denotes one of the German Grand Lodges, past or present and (GLNF) the Grande Loge Nationale Française.
- Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.
- Other abbreviations now used: Ch. – Chapter; Dist. – District; Fmy – Freemasonry; G. – Grand; G.L. – Grand Lodge; G.M. – Grand Master; G.M.M. – Grand Master Mason; K.T. – Knight(s) Templar; L. – Lodge; Pr. – Provincial; R.A. – Royal Arch; S.G.C. – Sovereign Grand Commander.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (GLNF) denotes the Grande Loge Nationale Française.

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English Lodge or chapter number indicates that it derived from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge or chapter has been erased or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Other abbreviations now used: Ch. – Chapter; Dist. – District; Fmy – Freemasonry; G. – Grand; G.L. – Grand Lodge; G.M. – Grand Master; G.M.M. – Grand Master Mason; K.T. – Knight(s) Templar; L. – Lodge; Pr. – Provincial; R.A. – Royal Arch; S.G.C. – Sovereign Grand Commander.

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. GLNF denotes the Grande Loge Nationale Française.

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge or chapter number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge or chapter has been erased or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Other abbreviations used: Ch. – Chapter; Dist. – District; Fmy – Freemasonry; G. – Grand; G.L. – Grand Lodge; G.M. – Grand Master; K.T. – Knight(s) Templar; L. – Lodge; Pr. – Provincial; R.A. – Royal Arch. AQC refers to the transactions of the Quatuor Coronati Lodge (Ars Quatuor Coronatorum); F.R.C. stands for 'Fellowship of the Rosy Cross'.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH

Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (GLNF) denotes the Grande Loge Nationale Française, (NSW) New South Wales and (NY) New York.

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge or chapter number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge or chapter has been erased or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Other abbreviations used: A. & A.R. – Ancient and Accepted Rite; Dist. – District; Fmy – Freemasonry; G. – Grand; G.L. – Grand Lodge; G.M. – Grand Master; L. – Lodge; NSW – New South Wales; OES – Order of the Eastern Star; Pr. – Provincial; R.A. – Royal Arch; R.C. – Rose Croix; USA – United States of America. AQC refers to the transactions of the Quatuor Coronati Lodge (Ars Quatuor Coronatorum). In connection with dates: b. – born; d. – died; fl. (floruit) – 'flourished', i.e., is known to have been alive; init. – initiated.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (GLNF) denotes the Grande Loge Nationale Française.

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or united with another, or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Other abbreviations used: Dep – Deputy; Fmy – Freemasonry; GL – Grand Lodge; GM – Grand Master; GMM – Grand Master Mason (Scotland); L. – Lodge; Pr – Provincial; RA – Royal Arch; SGC – Sovereign Grand Commander; USA – United States of America. AQC refers to the transactions of Quatuor Coronati Lodge (Ars Quatuor Coronatorum). In connection with dates: b. – born; d. – died; fl. (floruit) – 'flourished', i.e., is known to have been alive.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH

Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (NZC) denotes the Grand Lodge of New Zealand.

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. *against an English lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or united with another, or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Other abbreviations used: Ch - Chapter; Dep - Deputy; Fmy - Freemasonry; GL - Grand Lodge; GM - Grand Master; L - Lodge; Pr - Provincial; RA - Royal Arch; SGC - Sovereign Grand Commander; USA - United States of America. AQC refers to the transactions of Quatuor Coronati Lodge (Ars Quatuor Coronatorum). In connection with dates: b. - born; d. - died; fl. (floruit) - 'flourished', i.e., is known to have been alive.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (SC) refers to the Scottish Constitution and (A) to the Antients.

Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or united with another, or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Other abbreviations used: Ch – Chapter; Dep – Deputy; Fmy – Freemasonry; GL – Grand Lodge; GM – Grand Master; GMM – Grand Master Mason (Scotland); L – Lodge; Pr – Provincial; RA – Royal Arch; USA – United States of America. AQC refers to the transactions of Quatuor Coronati Lodge (Ars Quatuor Coronatorum). In connection with dates: b. – born; d. – died; fl. (floruit) – 'flourished', i.e., is known to have been alive. † distinguishes a former or present member of Quatuor Coronati Lodge.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (GLNF) stands for Grande Loge Nationale Française. Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or united with another, or is no longer on the English Register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Page numbers in bold type denote the more important references; page numbers in italics denote illustrations or their captions; passim (e.g. 40–50 passim) conveys that the subject is referred to not continuously but in scattered passages throughout the pages; q. stands for 'quoted' and q.v. for 'quod vide' (which see); n (or nn) refers to footnotes, now collected at the end of the relevant paper (or comment on a paper).

Other abbreviations used: Ch. – Chapter; Dep – Deputy; Dist – District; Fmy – Freemasonry; GL – Grand Lodge; GM – Grand Master; L. – Lodge; Pr (or Prov) – Provincial; RA – Royal Arch; RC (R.C.) – Rose Croix; SC – Supreme Council; S.J. – Society of Jesuits. AQC refers to the transactions of Quatuor Coronati Lodge (Arx Quatuor Coronatorum).

In connection with dates: b. – born; d. – died; fl. (floruit) – 'flourished', i.e., is known to have been alive; init. – initiated.

+ distinguishes a former or present member of Quatuor Coronati Lodge.

INDEX

compiled by FREDERICK SMYTH
Member of the Society of Indexers

Lodges, chapters, etc., are under the English Constitution unless otherwise designated and, unless a location is given, are (or were) of London. (IC) refers to the Irish Constitution, (SC) to the Scottish and (A) to the Antients. (NY) stands for New York and (NZC) for the New Zealand Constitution. Lodges, chapters, etc., still in existence are in most cases indexed under their modern titles, numbers and Constitutions, and cross-references are made where appropriate. * against an English lodge number indicates that it derives from a period before the final numbering of 1863 and, unless otherwise noted, that the lodge has been erased or united with another, or is no longer on the English register. Self-evidently, the numbers of lodges under the Antient Grand Lodge do not need to be so distinguished.

Page numbers in bold type denote the more important references; page numbers in italics denote illustrations or their captions; passim (e.g. 40–50 passim) conveys that the subject is referred to not continuously but in scattered passages throughout the pages; q. stands for 'quoted'; n (or nn) refers to footnotes, now collected at the end of the relevant paper (or comment on a paper).

Other abbreviations used: Ch. – Chapter; Dep – Deputy; Dist – District; Fmy – Freemasonry; GL – Grand Lodge; GM – Grand Master; GMM – Grand Master Mason; KT – Knight(s) Templar; L. – Lodge; Pr (or Prov) – Provincial; RA – Royal Arch; SGComdr – Sovereign Grand Commander; SC – Supreme Council. AQC refers to the transactions of Quatuor Coronati Lodge (Ars Quatuor Coronatorum).

In connection with dates: b. – born; d. – died; fl. (floruit) – 'flourished', i.e., is known to have been alive; init. – initiated.

+ distinguishes a former or present member of Quatuor Coronati Lodge.
