

How to Book

Booking could not be easier: just visit the QC website and click on the link to the in-house booking page under 2020 Conference. You can book & pay with PayPal or a credit card: www.quatuorcoronati.com/2020-conference

How much does it cost?

Conference Registration Fee

Full Conference US$99 for QCCC members
 US$119 for non-members

Saturday/Sunday only: US$95 for QCCC members
 US$115 for non-members

Guests and partners are welcome to attend

Plus

‘Period Demonstration Lodge’ Friday Evening
 US$5 per person
The fee covers incidental costs specific to the event

Conference Reception & Dinner Saturday Evening
 US$85 per person
Guests and partners are welcome to attend
Please book asap so that we can finalize numbers

Walking Tour of Boston Sunday Afternoon
 US$2 per person donation

How to Get There

By Car

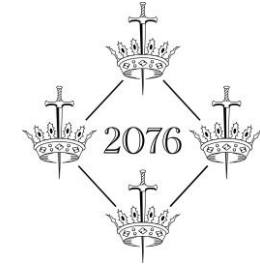

The Grand Lodge building is in the heart of downtown Boston at 186 Tremont Street, Boston, MA 02111. There is garage parking next door (entrance in Boylston Street), and other garages are close by. Street parking is limited and meters are in use Monday - Saturday, 8am – 8pm (2 hours max). Meters are currently free to use on Sundays.

Via the MBTA System

The Boylston Street Subway Station is only a few yards from the Grand Lodge building and Green lines B, C, D and E stop at the station. Red and Orange lines stop at stations nearby (Park Street & Chinatown). The Silver Line - SL1 - links Logan International Airport to Boston’s South Station.

Grand Lodge of Massachusetts
186 Tremont Street, Boston, MA

Quatuor Coronati 2020 Conference

‘Freemasonry on the Frontier’

AT THE
GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS
BOSTON, MA

18 - 20 September 2020

Conference Program

FRIDAY 18 SEPTEMBER - DAY ONE

GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS

- 14.00-14.30 Registration
- 14.30-15.15 Ric Berman: Welcome Remarks, followed by
‘The American Frontier: reflections on the foundations of American Freemasonry’
- 15.15-16.00 Bob Cooper: ‘Scotland and pre-Revolutionary Masonic America’
- 16.00-16.45 Brent Morris: ‘The Higher Degrees in the US, 1730-1830’
- 16.45-17.30 Floor / Panel Discussion
- Followed by an evening in Boston

Grand Lodge Room

SATURDAY 19 SEPTEMBER - DAY TWO

GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS

- 09:00-09:30 Welcome / Coffee
- 09:30-10:10 Mike Kearsley: ‘Rob Morris, the Conservators, and the failure to establish a Grand Lodge of the United States’
- 10:10-10:50 Barry Hoffbrand: ‘Henry Harford, the last Proprietor (and Provincial Grand Master) of Maryland’
- 10:50-11:10 Coffee / Break
- 11:10-12:00 Andreas Onnerfors: ‘Revolution and Race in Nineteenth-Century German America’
- 12:00-13:00 Lunch
- 13:00-13:40 Ben Williams: ‘Freemasonry in the Territory of Colorado - Masons, Miners, and the rush to Statehood’
- 13:40-14:15 Hilary Anderson Stelling: ‘Early New York City Mark Medals’
- 14:15-15:00 John Kyle Day: ‘Arkansas Prince Hall Freemasonry in the Nineteenth Century’
- 15:00-15:20 Coffee / Break
- 15:20-16:00 Walter H. Hunt: ‘The ‘neo-colonial’ expansionism of Massachusetts Masonry’
- 16:00-16:40 Leif Endre Grutle; ‘Scandinavian Immigrants and New World Freemasonry’
- 16:40-17:00 Floor / Panel Discussion
- 17.30-18.30 Eighteenth-Century Demonstration Lodge in Period Costume
- 19.00 Conference Reception & Dinner

Seal of the GL of Massachusetts

SUNDAY 20 SEPTEMBER - DAY THREE

GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS

- 09:15-09:30 Welcome / Coffee
- 09:30-10:10 Hans Schwartz: ‘Freemasonry in Revolutionary New England’
- 10:10-10:50 John Wade: ‘Senator Bro. Samuel Latham Mitchill and Eighteenth-Century America’s Medical Education in Edinburgh’
- 10:50-11:30 Jeffrey Croteau: ‘Joseph Cerneau vs. Emanuel De La Motta: A View of the 1813 Founding of the Scottish Rite’s Supreme Council, Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, USA, Through the Lens of Religious Intolerance’
- 11:30-12:10 Adam Kendall: ‘History’s Hidden Reverse: The Scandals and Secret Rites of Benjamin D. Hyam’
- 12:10-12:40 Floor / Panel Discussion
Conclusions & Wrap
- 14:30 Walking Tour of Masonic Boston
Depart from GL of MA

The Gothic Room

Please note that events, panels and speakers may be subject to change.

Please see the 2020 Conference pages at www.quatuorcoronati.com